

ROCKFISH NEWS

By Mrs. A. A. Melnie

The weather is not generally considered a good news topic, but some rain right now would be wonderful news for the people in this area whose crops and gardens are burning up.

Mrs. Wesley McKeithan and children of Sharon, Pa. spent the past week end with Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McKeithan. They came here from Bunn, where they were visiting Mrs. McKeithan's mother, Mrs. Shearon. Seems strange that Mrs. McKeithan's maiden name was so nearly like the name of the place where she now lives in Pennsylvania.

Bobby Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watson of Fayetteville and grandson of A. L. Long, who was so seriously ill after having spinal meningitis at the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, visited with his parents in the home of his grandfather Sunday and is now doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shockley, Mr. and Mrs. Will Monroe, Harold Monroe,

Miss Joyce Coneley, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pittman and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Capps were among those from this section who attended the big singing at Benson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones and son, Dale, spent Sunday with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Dalrymple, of Sanford.

Philippi Church is having their daily vacation Bible School this week, closing Friday evening.

Parker's Church is having Bible School this week. The closing exercises will be Friday evening and there will be a picnic supper at the church at seven o'clock. All parents of the children and friends of the church are invited to come and bring a basket.

Mrs. J. F. McDowell has gone to Baltimore to spend a while with her mother, Mrs. Annie Barnhill and her brother, Jerry Barnhill and her sons, Maxie and Curtis McDowell.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wood went to Manteo Saturday night to see The Lost Colony. They were in a storm on the way home Sunday, but got home safely.

Mrs. Ernest Capps' mother, Mrs. Jernigan of Harnett County is spending a while with Mr. and Mrs. Capps.

Fred Wood entered Veterans Hospital, Fayetteville, Monday for a minor operation.

Mrs. W. T. Boseman of Whispering Pines spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koonce.

Mrs. Kirk Parker went to Manteo Saturday to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas McPherson and Mr. McPherson and her grandson, Thomas, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dees and children of near Raeford have moved to Rockfish to live permanently and will begin work on their new home soon.

Ball playing must be contagious as the women of Rockfish are taking to this sport.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Koonce and sons of Raeford were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koonce Sunday.

Women of the Church, Galatia, had their general meeting on Monday night. At this time their delegate to Training School at Winston-Salem gave her report.

Miss Pauline Davis of Asheville came Wednesday to spend the rest of the week with Mr. and

Mrs. F. A. Monroe

Mrs. J. W. Caddell, J. W., Jr. of Raeford and Mrs. Jim Sharp and son of Bakersfield, Calif. visited friends in Rockfish Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heath and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Caddell last Sunday.

Since a lot of people were interested in Mrs. E. T. Brock's little ducks, just one more report on them. They are about half grown and the seven make a pretty sight on the water and to see them eat is amusing. They take a bite of food, run down the bank into the water, take a sip, and come right back to get more food and back to the water again. It's a continual round with some going and coming all the time. Guess it is well the chicken hen has been relieved of her responsibility, for she'd probably be scratching with all her might, making it more difficult for the little ducks to go through their procedure.
