Activities Around Antioch

By Miss Françoise Kennedy

With the new year the various organizations around which most Antioch activities center have swung into renewed action.

The Young People of Antioch Presbyterian Church engaged in a candle-lighting installation service for their new officers on last Sunday evening. The Rev. Gower Crosswell installed Billy Morrow as president, Mitchell Collins as vice-president, Thomas Gillson as secretary-treasurer, and Phyllis Bostie as program director. Mr. and Mrs. Radford Collins are adult advisers of the group, succeeding Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hodgkin. The outgoing officers are Bobby Clark, Charles Conoly, and Frances McDonald. Among plans for the new year is one to observe the last Sunday in January as "Youth Sunday" by taking part in the morning church service on that day.

The Women of the Church held their January meeting in the Educational Building on Monday evening, and in spite of the rain had an excellent attendance. The program was enjoyed by all, having as its theme "Anxious Moments". It was presented by Mrs. D. W. Gillis, and participants included Mrs. J. M. Andrews, Mrs. Cecil McPhaul, and Mrs. Gillis.

Mrs. Lamon Bruner continues as president of the organization and Miss Sarah McKenzie as Secretary. Newly installed officers included Mrs. Sherwood Baldwin as vice-president, Miss Jean Hodgkin as treasurer, and Mrs. Sarah McDonald as historian. Chairmen of standing committees are Mrs. Gower Crosswell, Spiritual Growth; World Mission, Mrs. Sarah Margaret McNeill; Stewardship, Mrs. Jim McDonald; Annuities and Relief, Mrs. Bill McMillan; Christian Education, Mrs.

Brown McDiarmid; Church Extension, Mrs. J. M. Andrews; General Fund, Mrs. Doug McPhaul. Circle chairmen are Mrs. Archie Howard, Mrs. D. W. Gillis, Miss Willa McLauchlin, Mrs. W. B. Gillson, Mrs. Eddie Batchelor, and Mrs. Harry Daniel.

Scoutmaster David Gibson has every reason to be proud of the Antioch Troop of Boy Scouts. At their first meeting of the year they had as visitors members of the Church's Scout Committee: Walter Gibson, Cliff Conoly and W. C. Hodgkin. Four of the Scouts passed successfully tests for advancement. They will be presented at the next Court of Honor as follows: Walter Curtis McNamiris, to first class; David McDonald, John and Ray McQueen, to second class. The Troop has already on hand 1,000 pines to be set out as their next project.

Antioch Church has been designated as a station on the route of the Hoke County Library Bookmobile. It will stop here at approximately three o'clock on the first and third Fridays. This is a greatly appreciated service.

Friends of the family of Mrs. Joe Campbell are much concerned to learn that she is critically ill in the hospital in Laurinburg.

Mrs. G. I. Klapp is visiting relatives in Lumberton, where her sister, Miss Sallie King, is critically ill in the hospital.

Miss Willa McLauchlin is under treatment for bursitis in Fayetteville. Mrs. J. H. McKenzie had the pleasure of a visit last week from her son, Dewey McKenzie of Richmond, Va. Mrs. Ethel McKenzie is visiting a daughter in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Brown McDiarmid and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Conoly were in Myrtle Beach during the week end.

Little Miss Ellen Conoly declined the opportunity to make the trip to the beach because she values her perfect attendance record at Sunday School. Her decision gratified her teachers.
