

ROCKFISH NEWS

By Mrs. A. A. McInnis.

The outstanding news this week is that Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wood had a telephone put in their home last week. Since their number is not in the directory we now have, and for the benefit of those who might like to call them, their number is 6988.

Doings at Tabernacle Church week beginning Wednesday evening will be Prayer and Bible Study at 7:00 p. m., Choir practice at 8:00 p. m. Thursday evening, WMU General Meeting at 7:30. The Pastor Rev. Scott Turner will speak on the place of WMU in the coming Evangelistic Crusade; Friday YWAGA and Sunbeams meet at 7:00 p. m. the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Terry and sons, Robert and Lee, visited Mr. Terry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Terry of Laurinburg the past week end.

Before the paper came out stating that G. A. Monroe was at home, but had to return to Veterans Hospital Fayetteville last week, where he had been a patient for some time, previously.

Mrs. Rommie William of Dunn and Miss Marjorie McDougald of ECC, Greenville visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McDougald, of Wayside the past week end.

Dr. and Mrs. Billy Plummer and children of Goldsboro were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plummer of Wayside.

Jimmy, son of Mrs. Robert Ray, and the late Mr. Ray is recuperating after an operation for hernia at Highsmith Hospital Monday.

Mrs. M. R. Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tillman visited Mrs. W. T. Boseman at Whispering Pines Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McKeithan visited Mrs. Boseman and Mrs. Fannie Barrett at Whispering Pines Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker, Charles, Eddy and Bobby of Raeford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Brock, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Brock of St. Pauls, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Brock of Laurel Hill.

Miss Patricia Ritter of FMC Red Springs spent the past week end at home. She was accompanied by Miss Bonnie Bunn of Rocky Mount, who is also a junior at FMC.

Rev. Jenkins, Chaplain at Veterans Hospital, Fayetteville conducted the morning worship service at Galatia Church Sunday.

Sorry to report Mrs. Henry Plummer on the sick list this week and hope she will soon be back to her normal health.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Monroe and sons, Joe Allen and Ronald, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Wood of Raeford Sunday.

The chicken and oyster supper at Rockfish last Friday night for March of Dimes netted $102.00 for the cause. The generosity of the Rurians and others in donating most of the foodstuff made this possible as the night was cold and rainy and the attendance not so good, except from the immediate community.

Marion Wood of PJC, Maxton spent the past week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wood.

Miss Frankie McDougald visited her sister, Miss Helen McDougald, at Chapel Hill over the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McPherson and son, Thomas, Jr. of Mebane spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Parker and family.

Miss Irma Ray of Richmond, Virginia was a visitor in the home of parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ray over the past week end. Their son, Thomas Ray, of Camp Gordon, Georgia was also at home for the week end. He has just finished basic training and expects to enter the signal corps.

Mrs. Wilson Lunford, Mrs. Lucy Scarborough and Mrs. Joe Lovette sponsored a Valentine party for the MYF of Parkers Church at Wayside Community House Wednesday night, February 16. The Valentine motif was carried out in decorations and refreshments. After a number of games and contests were enjoyed the hostesses served cake and ice cream in a color scheme of red and white. The young folks all reported it quite a success.

Mrs. Joe Lovette, in telling of her trip last week to Chapel Hill where she attended the Fifth Annual Conference on World Affairs, says that it was a wonderful experience. Others from this county who went with Mrs. Lovette were Miss Josephine Hall of Raeford, Mrs. Martin Cameron and Mrs. John Baker of Little River.

The Rev. D. E. Baker of Autryville, former pastor at Rockfish, was a member of the Nail Keg Club in good and regular standing. Until recently there was doubt about the Rev. Scott Turner being associated with this order, but Monday of this week he was caught standing (not sitting) right in the midst of the Nail Kegs and adding his bit to the conversation, so if he isn't a member he must be on the verge of joining the club.

The road folks smoothed over Fayetteville Street again last week and don't think we don't appreciate it.

If we could tell tales out of school there might be plenty of news. Why did they have to coin that phrase about not telling tales out of school anyway?

Ips Bark Beetles Hit Three Counties

Ips bark beetles have established a foothold in three Piedmont counties and may spread to surrounding counties, warns John L. Gray, head of extension forestry at State College.

Gray says that Union, Anson, and Stanly counties are infested with Ips bark beetles. He says they apparently built up in Union County as the result of three very dry seasons in a row.

Trees show signs of attack by a yellowing of the foliage which soon changes to a reddish-brown color.

Gray emphasizes that since these insects feed on the inner bark and do not enter the wood itself, any method of destroying the bark of infested trees will cut down on their numbers.

Peeling and burning the bark, sawing log-size infested trees and burning the slabs, or cutting infested trees of pulpwood-size into pulpwood and shipping them right to a mill where they will be debarked on arrival, are all practical ways of knocking down the infestation.

Owners who cannot peel bark or have their trees hauled-out can cut them down and spray the trunk with a one-half of one percent mixture of benzene hexachloride in fuel oil.

Persons desiring more information can secure a copy of Extension Folder 188, "Ips Engraver Beetle", from their county agent or by writing Extension Editor, State College Station, Raleigh.

$4,200 Earnings To Be Taxed For Social Security This Year

"Beginning in 1955 up to $4,200 per year in earnings are counted for social security purposes," said Malcolm George, manager of the Fayetteville district office in an interview today.

"This means," said Mr. George, "that future payments of social security will be higher to those persons earning over the present ceiling of $3,600. "The present $3,600 wage base permits payments of social security benefits of $98.50 per month to the worker," he continued. "The $4,200 base will eventually allow a worker to retire and receive as much as $108.50 per month. Don't forget," Mr. George pointed out, "that the worker's wife will also be eligible for an amount equal to half of her husband's benefits." This means a family benefit of $162.80 per month if the worker has paid social security tax on as much as $4,200 per year.

Experts say that "hollow horn" and "hollow tail" are imaginary diseases of cattle, having no basis of fact.
