PAGE TWO

Weekly Report On Activities Around Antioch By Miss Willa McLauchlin

Mrs. J. M. Andrews was a vis-itor in Raleigh on last Wednesday. Church in Fayetteville, and will She also attended the Farm and begin work on July 1. Home Week programs that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Bostic and family are spending this week at Wrightsville Beach. Mrs. Ruria Shelton, Mrs. Lu-dius Biggs, Miss Ollie Biggs and the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Sloop of Lumberton, Mrs. Walter Gibson were shoppers of Pinehurst, Dr. and Mrs. Leslie

Mrs. Danny Messisco and six children of Detroit, Mich. are vis-iting her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Sappenfield. Gerald Sappenfield has been on a visit to his sister's, and accompanied her back North Carolina.

Little Miss Pat Veasey of Aber-

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Canady and

Mrs. Myrtle Sappenfield accom

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Watson

Mrs. Murch Butler of Lumber-

Miss Patricia Horton of Marsh-Crosswell and family. Mr. and when they came for their daugh-

Mrs. Dick Durrer of Camp Le-jeune visited her aunt and uncle. after a visit with relatives in eek end. She returned on Sun afternoon to resume her day The Rev. and Mrs. Gower Cross vell, Jr. entertained the follow Tuesday evening of this week at their home; Dr. and Mrs. Walker B. Healy of Fayetteville, Dr. and STATE COLLEGE in Charlotte on Thursday, They accompanied Mrs. Hugh Thomp-Red Springs. son as far as Charlotte on her way home in Johnson City, Tenn

William Huske of Fayetteville visited the J. W. Hastys on Sun-The Rev. Gower Crosswell was Fayetteville visitar on Friday. day and attended church at Antioch

Miss Mary Jane McNelll has been transferred from the Robe-The Men's Club met in the Educational Building for their re-gular monthly supper meeting on on County Memorial Hospital to cleaner to keep

The Allendale Community

work and gave a number amended on their splendid condition remains about the same Wingate B. McLauchlin pending this week visiting Mr and Mrs. Dan John and Mrs. Flora McLauchlin, while his fam-

STATE COLLEGE

HINTS TO FARM HOMEMAKERS

SHOE CARE FOR SUMMER-TIME - Shoes will wear better and last longer if you take good care of them. It is important to select good quality leather when you buy shoes.

Brush and polish shoes regular-ly. Saddle soap is an exceellent shape. Use clothes hangers; pad-cleaner to keep around the farm ded ones are best. son County Memorial Hospital to cleaner to keep around the farm. ded ones are best, between meals for that tired

Shoes when cleaned with saddle Remove unp stay soft and comfortable Also, you may use cream polish, liquid polish, or wax polish that damp cloth as soon as garment is contains no turpentine to clean taken off. smooth leathers such as calf, kid, DIFFER DIFFERENT, etc. Turpentine dries out leather. LIKE IT - Beef stew seasoned Neutral-colored cream may be with celery seed, hay leaves, pepper, Try cooking with a small amount of pickling spice. used on all shoes of leather but will not cover water stains. DAILY CARE OF CLOTHING

-Always put on and take off our clothing in the correct way. Shake, brush, and air garments overnight. Keep closet doors open for air circulate

Zip up the plackets and button the buttons before you har; your clothes in the closet. This keeps skirts straight. Tissue paper stuff-ed over shoulder pads keeps

Chicken-add a little onion salt, and a bit of mace to chicker gravy. For fried chicken, a bit of poultry seasoning is fine in the gravy to give a different but pleasing accent. Try rubbing just a little ground ginger on pot roast before cook-

AND YOU'LL

Veal is good with onion salt, celery salt, poultry seasoning. VITAMIN C FOR TIRED feeling should take arange juice, which provides Vitamin C and other important nutrients as well spots and stains soon as possible. Perspiration stain may be removed with a ss sugar for quick energy. GOOD BREAKFASTS, GOOD

TEMPERS - Lack of breakfast not only effects the disposition, it is also bad for the health and mental alertness, reports the fameconomics bureau of a large life insurance company.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

D

THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1955