Weekly Report On

Activities Around Antioch

By Miss Willa McLaughlin

Mr. and Mrs. Radford Collins and are now living in the McNeill apartment house on Antioch road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McMillan and daughter, Helen Jane, spent Sunday in Chapel Hill. Mrs. Ruby McMillan, who has been on a visit in Chapel Hill, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Clark and baby moved to Raeford last week.

Miss Julia Tolar of Laurinburg visited Misses Willie Mae and Sallie Liles on Sunday.

Mrs. W. P. Rogers and Judith of Franklinville spent from Friday evening until Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hodgkin and family.

Miss Jane McPhaul, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil

McPhaul, had the misfortune to fall at her home last week and received a broken arm.

Mrs. Murch Butler of Lumberton was a week end guest of Miss Willa McLaughlin.

Miss Archie Howard attended the meeting of North Carolina Synodical in Wilmington on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The Executive Board of the Women of the Church will meet immediately after morning church services on Sunday in the Ladies Bible Class room. This meeting is called a week earlier so that In-gathering plans may be made. All circles will meet next week.

We are looking forward to Tuesday, September 30 when Fayetteville Presbytery will meet in Antioch Church. It has been a number of years since Presbytery has met here and we consider it a privilege to have it meet here on our 125th anniversary year. We are expecting a large crowd.
