GARDEN CLUB HAS FLOWER WORKSHOP

The Raeford Garden Club sponsored a flower arrangement workshop on Tuesday afternoon from two until five o'clock in the Methodist Church Fellowship room. The workshop was open to the public. Mrs. J. S. Johnson, Sr., Mrs. C. E. Upchurch and Mrs. T. D. Potter were hostesses.

The club meeting was opened with the reading of the Club Collect. Mrs. Sam Homewood, chairman, presided during the business session.

The workshop was conducted by Mrs. Roy Homewood of Chapel Hill. Mrs. Homewood is a past president of the State Federation of Garden Clubs, and is a nationally accredited flower show judge. She pointed out that the basic purpose of flower arranging is not for show purposes, but to enhance the beauty and enjoyment of the home. Mrs. Homewood also discussed design, proportion, balance, and conditioning. At the conclusion of the workshop Mrs. Homewood offered constructive criticism of all the arrangements made.

The hostesses served refreshments, and the club presented their guest speaker with a gift.

MRS. UPCHURCH IS HOSTESS TO LUNCHEON BRIDGE CLUB
