GROWTH IN CHRISTIAN RELATIONSHIPS

By Clint H. Denman
International Uniform Lesson
SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
FOR OCTOBER 22, 1961

Scripture: Philippians 2:1-18; Colossians 3:1-4:1.
Memory Selection: "Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interest of others." Phil 2:4.

The memory verse for our lesson today warrants consideration by all of us who would study with earnestness the ideas both condemned and approved by Paul in his message to the church at Colossia. Paul says in Philippians that "each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interest of others." This is an ideal note to commence with after our concluding thoughts of last week when it was said that we "should discover the love, patience, kindness and graciousness of God."

Having developed a desire to learn about God, we immediately find that knowledge of His power in our life makes new plateaus for us to face.

RAILROAD CAREER

Jobs as Telegraph Operators and Station Agents are opening in most areas due to heavy retirements, promotions and deaths. If qualified you may prepare at low cost for placement in one of these openings, starting at $400 per month, providing you are between 17 and 28, high school graduate or G. E. D. equivalent, physically fit and willing to work days while training nights. GI approved for Korean vets. If sincerely interested in a personal interview, write, stating age, phone number, address, marital status and present occupation, to rit of Christ in your heart. Meekness is a being Christianly shy, but spiritually alive with the workings of Christ. Patience is the strength that comes when you are spiritually rich enough to overlook the faults of others - friends or foe - and instead of becoming irritable, help them to lose what irritable feeling toward life they possess.

As great as these deeds are, when we have possessed them, they are dangerously ebbing toward turning an about face within our own life. People have become so kind and so meek that they have lost their sense of lowliness. People at times have become so Christian in action that they spiritually lose these five traits because they begin to condemn and judge another child of God. Instead of this they should both be attempting to reason feelings, expressed sincerely, to determine God's way and God's will.

-- We allow "the peace of Christ to rule within our hearts." When this happens then we safely do "everything in the name of Jesus Christ." These are easy words to pen or to say, but they are not easy deeds and tasks to do. It may mean that we become set aside from our particular habits that have marked us a life time if we allow "the peace of Christ to rule in our hearts." The reward for such action and witness is greater than the price.

Secondly, "if we do everything in the name of Christ Jesus, we automatically block many of the "righteous" things that were apart of our life. Again the reward is far greater than the price because we discover the rich blessings of Christ's way.

Relationships come within the home, the school, the factory, the office, play and the creeds and races of peoples. In all things we must seek God and His Guidance. Our decisions alone are no stronger than no decision at all.

Our decisions in the light of Christ's knowledge are decisions worthy of God!

YOUR HEALTH

By J. A. Kosterman, D. C. "NERVES"

"It's just my nerves, I've always been this way." So many patients offer this complaint to their doctor, and receive sedation and tranquilizers for their complaints. So many have to lean on alcohol just to take the edge off. This is like putting out a fire with oil. In practically all cases the hidden cause is one specific pressure point at the base of the skull, in the neck. And when specifically corrected, these patients regain a new life. Just a word of encouragement to those of you whose sleep is not normal, who are tense, or irritable, who are envious of the relaxed or easy going individual. There is a definite cause for your condition and regardless of how you treat this condition until the cause is removed you still will have "Nerves."
