HOME COMING AT TABERNACLE BAPTIST

The annual Homecoming at Tabernacle Baptist Church Sunday was quite a success in every way. The program of the day began with Sunday School at 9:45 and worship service at 11:00. The Rev. Scott Turner of Hamlet, a beloved former pastor, was the guest speaker. Special music was presented by the church choir with Keith Hawks, soloist and Miss Ann Dees, pianist. Historical highlights were given by Bruce Dees. Hoyle Langford, pastoral supply, conducted the memorial service. A generous contribution of tithes and offerings was received. The outdoor picnic lunch was delicious. Mrs. Scott Turner, and sons, Oliver and Sammy, were among the special guests.

Thanks to all who helped in any way with the United Fund. So many residents of Rockfish work at Fort Bragg and the mills in Raeford that there are not many left to contribute to the fund. Also, some of our people had their crops ruined this year by hail.

Mrs. Alfred Berry's mother, Mrs. Dan McKellar, spent sometime with the Berry family the first of this week.

The community extends sympathy to the Parker and Everette families in their loss of loved ones by death recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy English, Mr. and Mrs. Grady English and children attended a double birthday celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Huggins of Clarkton Sunday. The honorees were Ed Huggins, 85 and Grady English, 39. As in all birthday celebrations there was an abundance of delicious food, including the birthday cake and all the accessories. The honorees received gifts. We wish for Mr. Huggins and Mr. English many more Happy Birthdays!

Everyone seemed pleased with the sermon by the Rev. Dewey Herring of Benson at Galatia Sunday. He preached in view of a call.

Officers elected at the last meeting of Wayside Grange were master K. A. MacDonald; overseer, Mrs. Marshall Newton; steward, R. D. Parker; assistant steward, T. A. McInnis; lecturer, Mrs. R.W. Posey; chaplain, G. C. Lytle; sec-treas., Mrs. M.S. Gibson; Ceres, Mrs. R.D. Parker; Pomona, Mrs. Henry Plummer; Flora, Mrs. G. C. Hales; Executive Board, F.P. Johnson for three years.

ROCKFISH CLUB MEETS

By Mike Nugent, Reporter

The Rockfish 4-H Club met Thursday night, October 12. After the pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the club motto were repeated, Linda Wright and Gilbert Ray, song leaders, led the singing. The time for Achievement night was announced and the name for the club will still be Rockfish 4-H Club. Plans for the coming year were discussed. After recreation and refreshments the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Koonce has as their guest the past week end and a few days this week his uncle, Hardy Koonce of Fayetteville.

Mrs. C. M. Allison and children of Wayside spent the past week end with Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wilson of Garner.

Miss Eloise McGill, Mrs. Mary McInnis and Thomas McInnis attended the Homecoming at Longstreet Church Sunday. Mrs. Elbert Herring, a descendant of the first pastor of Longstreet Church, and her daughter, Pat, and son, Thomas, of Greensboro also attended from this area. They were here visiting Mrs. Herring's sister, Mrs. Thomas McColl, and family over the week end. They returned to Greensboro on Sunday afternoon.

LONGSTREET HOMECOMING

The Homecoming at Longstreet Church Sunday was a grand occasion. The cleaning up and all the details for the comfort and convenience of the "Homecomers" had been taken care of by the Ft. Bragg Army personnel and even an arrangement of beautiful flowers had been placed in the church. There was a worship service at 11:00. A prelude of instrumental music by Miss Elizabeth Currie of Fayetteville and some good strong singing led by Mr. Johnson of Fayetteville called the people in the absence of a bell. Scott Currie introduced the speaker, the Rev. E. S. Currie, retired missionary, who preached. Lunch was served outdoor picnic style on the long tables back of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Watson attended the Highsmith Memorial Hospital Alumnae Banquet at Plantation House, Fayetteville, Saturday night. Mrs. Watson graduated from Highsmith School of Nursing Class of 1950.

Robert Wood has been called back into service. He left Monday for Camp Ft. Lee, Va.
