Rockfish News

BY MRS. A. A. McINNIS

Congregations in the country churches are pretty good this summer considering they have to share with the beaches.

The Rev. James McLeod of Lumberton preached at Phillip Church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Douglas Kelly.

The community extends sympathy to Miss Alma Capps in the death of her mother who passed away at Adcox Nursing Home last week after a long illness; to Mrs. Braddy Barefoot and family in the death of Alex Barefoot who passed away unexpectedly at his home Thursday morning and also to Mrs. Bernie Player and family in the death of her father, J.C. Rogers of Rockingham, who died last Wednesday night in a Rockingham Hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Wayne Bundy came home Saturday after being a surgical patient at Cape Fear Valley Hospital last week.

L.B. Bundy was admitted to Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville last Wednesday. The cause of his illness had not been determined the first of this week.

Maj. Gilbert Ray, who is a patient at Womack Army Hospital in Fort Bragg, was reported some better the first of this week.

Mrs. E.R. Klunk and son, David of Fairfield, Ill. have come back here to live after being away for several years. T.G. Wood and family are glad to have Mrs. Klunk assume the duty of nursing Mrs. Wood as she did some years ago.

Mrs. Ellen Willis, Pamela Heath and David Willis are in Raleigh this week attending 4-H Club Week at N.C. State University from July 22-26. Dale Jones will go to Raleigh July 25 to attend the recognition banquet. Dale is State Tobacco Project Winner. His father, Roy Jones, will accompany him.

Mary Kate Parker and Barbara Plummer are also attending 4-H Club Week in Raleigh from Wayside Club. Barbara will play the organ in the coliseum July 25.

The "Bake Sale" at Rockfish Friday p.m. went over the top in raising the amount required to help send Pamela Heath to the Citizenship Short Course in Washington, D.C. next week.

Capt. and Mrs. Davis Parker and children, Karen and Kirkland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harman of Route 4, Fayetteville and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jackson and children of Red Springs spent the past weekend at Holdens Beach.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Dees Sunday p.m. were Mr. and Mrs. Brown Hendrix, Jr. of Raeford and Mrs. Kate Dees and Mrs. Nancy McKay of Aberdeen.

Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Guin of Carthage and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Guin of Newport News, Va. spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. David Koonce.

Sgt. and Mrs. John Reinburg, Johnny and Jimmy, who have just returned from Okinawa, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Koonce. Sgt. Reinburg is stationed at Fort Bragg and they will make their home in Fayetteville.

Wayne Wood spent Saturday and Saturday night with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wood of Fayetteville and attended the ball game with them in Durham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brock had as their guests Sunday Mrs. Brock's brother, Marvin Barefoot, of Fuquay.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Quick of Dundarrach were supper guests of Mrs. Marion Barefoot Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pittman came home from Holdens Beach Saturday to spend a few days at home.

Mrs. F.A. Monroe, Mrs. J.M. Andrews and Mrs. N.H.G. Balfour took a little business trip to Carthage Monday a.m. It seems they are planning for a longer trip in December.

Sic. Aubrey Gaddis left last Friday on his way back to Vietnam after spending 30 days at home. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Trummell of Parsons, Kansas returned home on Monday of last week after spending several days with the Gaddis family while their son was here. They were accompanied by their grandson, Michael Gaddis, also of Parsons, Kansas.

Alfred Berry, Harrison Berry and Johnny Cecil went with Archie Berry back to Goldsboro Sunday after he had spent three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Berry.

Thomas Melnis and his mother, Mrs. A.A. McInnis, visited relatives in Scotland County Sunday.

Garden Time

BY M. E. GARDNER

For the past three years Dr. Joe Love, Extension Specialist in Floriculture, has been the project leader for extensive bedding plant tests at North Carolina State University.

About the latter part of June or early July, he schedules a "Bedding Plant Day" to which he invites florists and nurserymen to study the many varieties on display and, with the use of a prepared score card, help in evaluating them. From "Bedding Plant Day" until fall the tests are open to the general public at the Horticultural Farm in West Raleigh.

Dr. Love has prepared, for Garden Time readers, a descriptive list of some of the better varieties in the different classes of bedding plants, which I am happy to pass on to you. You may wish to keep this for reference.

We will begin with the ever-popular petunia and first list the eight varieties that have scored highest. Peach Blossom - Pink, free-flowering grandiflora (large-flowered); Rose Star - compact, uniform, red and white multiflora (many-flowered); Coral Cascade - low-growing, compact pink multiflora; Red Magic - uniform bright red multiflora; Candy Apple - excellent, more floriferous and uniform than Comanche, grandiflora; Blue Danube - double dwarf grandiflora, similar to Blue Lace but lighter in color than Capri; Valentine - excellent dark rose, double grandiflora.
