Cathy Sanders At Scurlock

FTA Members Observe National Education Week

Cindy Smith, President of the Hoke County Chapter of Future Teachers of America, makes a point about the first Thanksgiving to the Special Education class at Scurlock Elementary School. At the same time, Kathy Sanders reads to a group of attentive students from Scurlock during a regular library period. These two F. T. A. members are only a part of the 47 Juniors and Seniors from the club who visited the various schools in the county Tuesday, November 11, 1969. On this date, the students were assigned a teacher by the principal of the school. The student observed the teacher and followed her schedule for the day looking for methods and techniques that the teacher used in the daily routine of teaching.

The students will be going back to their respective schools next Tuesday, November 18, 1969. At this time, most of the students will be participating in some type of teaching experience, under the guidance of the classroom teacher. Some of the activities the students may be doing include: (1) preparing materials, (2) helping small groups or individuals with difficulties, (3) reading or telling a story or poem to the class, (4) planning with the teacher and leading with a discussion or presentation of new material, (5) helping a group with a workbook or particular assignment, (6) assisting in arts and crafts or music, etc. Teacher and student X "teacher" are only limited by their imagination as to what activity can be worked out for the students in their classroom.

Through the interest and concern of the classroom teachers and administration of each school, these students are getting a valuable experience as they seek to understand some of the problems and rewards of the teaching profession. The schools working closely with the F. T. A. Chapter were Upchurch Junior High, Scurlock Elementary, South Hoke, West Hoke, and McLaughlin Schools. F. T. A. members attending Upchurch Junior High were Joe Augustoni, Debra Allison, Reba Best, Roy Chason, Robert Clark, Jerry Cribbs, Mike Davis, Kathy Davis, Paul Livingston, Carolina McCormick, Sammy McLamb, Jeff McNeill, Edward McPhatter, Mike Stedman, Allen Wood, Mary Kate Parker, Richard Davis, David Evers, Jimmy Kennedy and David Lemmy.

Students attending McLaughlin were Mary Nell Harward, Sandra Marks and Kathy Bounds. At South Hoke were Julia Augustoni, Judi

Advisers to the club are Jerry Thompson and Mrs. Linda Steed.

Scurlock School News

Students at Scurlock School received an unexpected treat Halloween Day when they saw a play written by one of their schoolmates.

The play, "The Halloween Surprise" was written by Miss Cathy Ruth Ezell, a fifth grader at the school. It was originally intended for presentation in her class, but subsequent to the first rehearsal her teacher decided the play was worthy of presentation to the entire student body.

Students in Cathy's class designed and built scenery and costumes for the play and played the parts of the eight characters in the play.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Mrs. Goeffery Guiles Purse (the former Dawn Kennedy) was honored with a Miscellaneous Bridal Shower at the Rex Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall on Saturday evening November 8th from 8 to 10 P.M.

Hostesses were Miss Mary Lou Beard of Red Springs, Mrs. Fred Inman of Fairmont, Mrs. Ben F. Shaw Sr., Mrs. A. D. Evans, Mrs. J. J. Beard and Mrs. H. P. Johnson, aunts and cousins of the bride.

The Fellowship Hall with bouquets of white camellia sasanquas, button and white star miniature mums, english ivy, tropical potted plants and lighted white candles were very festive in its bridal green and white color scheme.

Mrs. Purse wore a yellow rose bud corsage from her November 2nd wedding bouquet. Her mother, Mrs. F. E. Kennedy was presented a pink carnation corsage. Her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Jones and Miss Julia Melver, who assisted with the party, were presented white mum corsages.

A bridal bouquet contest was led by Mrs. Franklin Shaw, Jr. Miss Allene Shaw was winner of the contest.

Assisting in opening and displaying her gifts were her mother, Mrs. F. E. Kennedy, Mrs. Robert A. Dail and daughters Phoebe Lynn and Robin, cousins from Kingston, Carmen and Jane Shaw of Rex. Mrs. Dail read a very interesting account of sayings of the bride as she opened her gifts.

An imported silver candelabra with epergne of miniature white and star white mums, sasanquas and southern simlax graced the table from which yellow punch, flower cheese biscuits, miniature fruit cakes and mints were served.

About fifty guests attended. Out of town guests were Mrs. W. E. Godwin and Mrs. Grace Foley of Fayetteville, Mrs. Grace Griffin of Fairmont, Mrs. Pete Parker and Mrs. Kate McPhaul of Raeford, Misses Karen and John Ann McPhaul of Sanford, Mrs. Pat Conoly and Miss Patsy Conoly of Red Springs, Mrs. Bill McKay, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Sally Evans, Mrs. Maggie McDuffie, Miss Christine Willoughby and Misses Gail and Susan Jackson of St. Pauls.

The Rex Homemakers Club held its meeting on Tuesday at the restored home of John Charles McNeill, well known North Carolina poet, near Wagram.

They were met by Mrs. E.T. Smith, Mrs. Fairley Monroe and Mrs. Shaw, who led them on a guided tour of The Temperance Hall and McNeill Home. They also visited his grave in a nearby cemetery.

Attending were Mrs. Mary McNeill, President, Mrs. B. F. Shaw Sr. secretary, Miss Julia Melver and Daisy Little, Mrs. Genella Dearen, Mrs. H. L. Willis, Mrs. Jack Crenshaw and Mrs. H. P. Johnson.

She also is a school cheerleader.

VFW Commander Requests Day Of Prayer Nov. 16th

Residents of Hoke County are being asked by Commander Roy Jackson of V. F. W. Post No. 9160 to join in a national day of prayer November 16, asking for peace, safety of our servicemen in Vietnam, national unity and guidance for the United States in this time of crisis.

Commander Jackson said he hopes all residents of Hoke County will participate in this "call to worship" and that the clergy will set aside November 16 for special prayers in all Hoke County churches.

In announcing the day of prayer, Commander Jackson cited a recent appeal made by the Rev. Earl Best, Indianapolis, Indiana, National V. F. W. Chaplain, who said:

"In this critical time, all Americans should reflect prayerfully on the future course this nation will follow and to ask divine guidance for President Nixon as he makes decisions and sets policies that may affect untold generations yet unborn.

"All Americans should pray for peace and for the thousands of men who daily put their lives on the line in Vietnam to ensure the right of dissent for other thousands at home who so vociferously object to the role our nation is playing in that troubled country. Let us pray for unity in our resolve to do right.

"In their prayers Americans should remember the men and women who have given their lives in Vietnam and in all the wars their countrymen have fought to preserve freedom everywhere."

Commander Jackson explained that November 16 was selected as the national day of prayer because it is the first Sunday after Veterans Day, November 11, and concludes the week-long V. F. W. sponsored "Operation Speak Out" calling for unity and public support of American policies and troops in Vietnam.
