Pusey-Williamson Wedding Here Sunday

Miss Linda Carol Williamson became the bride of James Norman Pusey in a 2:00 p.m. ceremony Sunday at the Raeford Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Douglas Kelly heard the vows before members of the family and a few close friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Williamson of Raeford and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Horace Pusey of Avondale, Pennsylvania, and the late Mr. Pusey.

Wedding music was presented by Josef Privette, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a mint green wool dress and coat ensemble and carried a nosegay of green mums.

Mrs. Alan Cohen of Richmond, Va. was matron of honor for her sister.

Glenn Perry of Avondale, Penn., served as best man.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke High School and High Point College. The bridegroom is a senior at High Point College.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cabana of Cleveland, Ga., formerly of Raeford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Ann, to Kirby Iredelle Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stevens of Grantham, N.C.

Miss Cabana is a graduate of Hoke High School and of North Georgia Technical and Vocational School in Clarksville, Ga.

Mr. Stevens is a graduate of Wayne Community College. He served three years in the U.S. Army and is employed by J.P. Stevens Co. in Goldsboro. A June wedding is planned.
