Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
The Vietnam moratorium committee staged their demonstration in Washington on November 15th to win sympathy from their fellow Americans. They felt this all-out demonstration would result in a massive acceptance of their stand across the nation. Did they succeed? Not according to a recent CBS poll which indicated 81 percent of those interviewed support President Nixon and his Vietnam policy.

Sure, the demonstrators got the publicity, as usual, but the "silent majority" ranks were swelled as a result. Maybe we owe a vote of thanks to those marchers. They have helped destroy themselves.

We take far too much for granted. It is well to remember that the rise and fall of nations usually occur on a 200 year cycle. The United States is nearing the end of its first 200 years. We can only escape the usual ending if we work together to defeat those in our midst who sow the seeds of dissent, and corrupt the morals of our children.

We've got to renew our spirit of Patriotism throughout this great land of ours. Don't back away because you don't want to get involved. Let us crusade for freedom, and let us begin right now, if we are to survive.
Roy D. Jackson
Commander VFW Post 9160

To the Editor:
In the news release covering the Meeting of the City Council it was stated that I had made a complaint that tractor-trailer trucks parked on Reaves street interfered with television reception. I would like to state the complaint was based upon the fact that these big trucks were being parked in a residential area, the noise of which, when running, could be heard with the television on. A native son was required by our Town Board to remove his trucks from a residential area on Elwood Avenue, and I feel the same rule should apply to a residential area on Reaves Street. Thus the complaint.

Hoke Farmer Named To Vet Committee

T.J. Harris of the Blue Springs community was appointed this week by Governor Bob Scott to serve on a committee to study the feasibility of establishing a school of veterinary medicine in North Carolina.

The committee is composed of farmers, businessmen, veterinarians and representatives from the state board of health and the state university in Raleigh. Dr. Ron Williams, a Raleigh veterinarian, will serve as chairman of the committee.

Women began smoking cigarettes after the First World War. Today we are seeing the results, says the American Cancer Society—the lung cancer death rate for women has jumped 400 percent!
