Wimberley-Lee Vows Spoken At Antioch Church

Miss Jacquelyn Kay Lee and Stephen Howard Wimberley Jr. exchanged their wedding vows in a seven o'clock ceremony Saturday evening at Antioch Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Ben F. Ferguson officiated for the double ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lee of Antioch and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. S.H. Wimberley of Shelby.

The church was decorated with white gladioli, mums and greenery with white candles.

Music was presented by Mrs. Arclue Howard, organist, and Miss Ellen Conoly who sang, "O Perfect Love as the benediction."

The matron of honor, Mrs. Linda Manus, wore a street-length aqua dress and carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace, street-length dress, fashioned with scoop neckline and puff sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was attached to headband of seed pearls and net and she carried a Bible topped with orchids and streamers.

William Manus served as best man and ushers were Clem Lee and James Jones.

The mother of the bride wore a pink brocade knit dress. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue wool. Both mothers had corsages of white roses.

Following the ceremony, the bridal couple and their attendants greeted guests in the church vestibule.

After a short trip to the coast the couple will be at home here on S. Jackson St. For travel the bride wore a blue knit outfit, navy accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride will complete nurses training at Sandhills Community College in June. The bridegroom is employed by Raeford Turkey Farms.

Cake Cutting

Friday night, immediately following the wedding rehearsal, the bride's parents entertained with a cake cutting at their home.

MRS. STEPHEN H. WIMBERLEY JR.

The table was centered with a candelabrum holding white candles and yellow and white daisies. Mrs. J.H. McNeill Jr., aunt of the bride, served cake and Miss Jean Hodgkin presided at the punch bowl.

Belk Employees Entertained Sat.

Following the store closing Saturday, employees at Belk-Hensdale here were entertained by Mrs. Jesse Gullede, Mrs. George Wood and Mrs. Martin Webb.

Special guests were retiring store manager W.C. Phillips, and Mrs. Phillips, and J.W. Hensdale of Fayetteville.

Cokes, coffee, sandwiches, potato chips and cake were served.

Chaminade Music Club Meets

The Chaminade Music Club met at the Hoke Civic Center Tuesday evening. Miss Maude Poole, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. John Campbell. Mrs. Jack Mansfield, chairman of Ways and Means Committee, announced that the bake sale by the Club would be held Friday, April 10. An announcement was made concerning the program of music to be given at the Raeford Presbyterian Church Sunday, April 12.

Miss Jessie Bright Ferguson was program leader. She told about the Hym of the Month, "God, Thou Madest Earth", a Welsh melody, after which it was sung, with Mrs. Hugh Lowe accompanying.

The program was presented by the Hoke High Chorale under the direction of Mrs. Neill A. McNeill. This group recently received superior rating at the meeting in Wilmington. The following program was given:

"Miserere Mei" - Antonio Lotti; "Gloria" - Vivaldi; "Propter Magnam Gloriam" - Vivaldi; "Gloria Patri" - Palestrina, which was conducted by student director and president of the group, Jerry Cribbs; "Oh, Lord, In Thee Have I Trusted" - Handel; "Lirum Lirum", English Madrigal - Thomas Morley; "Let All the Nations Praise the Lord", arranged by Lara Hoggard; "Ave Maria" - Rachmaninoff; "Fair Phyllis", English Madrigal - Farmer; and "Those Were the Days" by Gene Raskin was sung as an encore. Accompanists were Missy Upchurch and Beth Jordan.

Mrs. Jack Mansfield, Mrs. Steve Hedgpeh, Mrs. James Stewart, and Miss Jessie Bright Ferguson, hostesses, served cookies, nuts and punch following the program.

Mrs. Currie Feted On Birthday

Mrs. Rex Currie was honored Sunday on her 73rd birthday with a surprise luncheon at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ed Byrd.

A buffet luncheon was served and guests were seated at individually appointed tables which were centered with arrangements of pink camellias and candles.

Mrs. Currie was presented a corsage of pink camellias and was remembered with birthday gifts.

Helping Mrs. Currie celebrate the occasion were Mr. Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bullock and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bryd, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Currie and family, Mrs. Annie McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. George Parks and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Parks Jr. and Bobby Britt.

Jane Conoly Feted Friday

Miss Jane Conoly, bride-elect of this month, was honored Friday night at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Susan Conoly.

After games were played, each guest was requested to write a favorite recipe to give to the honoree. Miss Conoly then opened her shower of gifts. Gift from the hostess was a cooker-fryer.

Miss Ellen Conoly, April bride-elect, and Miss Ann Black, June bride-elect, were remembered with gifts of china and crystal in their selected patterns. All three brides-elect were presented corsages of pink carnations.

Guests were invited into the dining area where they were served punch, bridal cakes, wedding cookies, nuts and mints from a table which was spread with a white lace cloth and centered with a green and white floral arrangement.

Herndon-Perry

Mr. and Mrs. William Archie Herndon of Red Springs announce the engagement of their daughter Wanda Kay, to Charles Fischel Perry Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fischel Perry of Pembroke.

The wedding will take place on June 21 at the First Baptist Church in Red Springs.

The bride-elect is a 1969 graduate of Red Springs High School. She is now attending the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she is enrolled in the Dental Assistant's Education and Training Program.
