A workshop for Democratic women of the Seventh Congressional District will be held in Lumberton at Holiday Inn North, Highway 1-95, on Tuesday, April 28. Plans are announced by Mrs. Worth D. Williamson of Lumberton, Seventh District director of the State Democratic Party.

The workshop is one of several being held in Congressional districts throughout the state this spring under direction of Mrs. James M. Harper, Jr., of Southport, vice chairman of the North Carolina Democratic Executive Committee.

Highlighting the morning program here will be addresses by Lieutenant Governor Pat Taylor, Mrs. Harper and Mrs. Betty Maurer of Winston-Salem, who is state advisor of Teen Dems. Congressman Alton G. After a coffee break, Mrs. Harper will moderate a "How to" Panel, in which participants will include Mrs. Leif Valand of Raleigh, past vice chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and Luther J. Britt, Jr., immediate past president of the Robeson County Democratic Executive Committee, Horace E. Stacy, Jr., and Mrs. W. H. Faulk, all of Lumberton.

General Davis, a military man for 28 years, has been a Guardsman for the last twenty. During World War II, he was an Air Force navigator in the Pacific Theater, participating in 13 campaigns. He earned the Bronze Star Medal, the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters, and other awards. Prior to his appointment as North Carolina Adjutant General, he commanded the 1500-man Support Command of the 30th Infantry Division (Mechanized).

observations: "In order for me to discharge my responsibility as Adjutant General, I believe that it is necessary for me to visit regularly all units in the State to become better acquainted with Guard personnel and more familiar with their problems in the field, and to meet local civic leaders.

"My experience with the unit visitations so far," General Davis reflected, "has been rewarding and has convinced me that these visits are not only advisable but necessary."

During the general's visit to Raeford, he conferred with Lt. Col. Newton, Capt. McKenzie, and full time Guardsmen Maj.

In 1940, Bogey played Chips Maguire in "It All Came True." You paid 20 cents to watch. And if you were really in the money, you had a nickel left over for a bag of popcorn. Since then, the cost of living has gone up about 160 percent. But the average price of electricity for your home has gone down 44 percent, nearly half what it was when the chips were down for bad guy Maguire.
