Hold Camporee

Junior Girl Scouts from five counties held a camporee last weekend at Lake McArthur at Ft. Bragg.

A total of 984 junior scouts and 216 senior scouts and adult leaders participated in the three-day camp-out.

From Hoke County, 67 juniors, 10 senior scouts and 14 adults attended. Other counties represented were Cumberland, Moore, Lee and Harnett.

The camporee was sponsored by the Ft. Bragg Girl Scout Neighborhood 33, which includes Ft. Bragg, Pope AFB, Spring Lake and Harnett Lake.

The tents and other equipment for the junior camp-out were set up by volunteers from Ft. Bragg, Mrs. Milo Postel, program co-ordinator said. Military authorities also supervised the camp out for safety and provided for church services, medical attendants and military police.

Other leaders from Raeford were Mrs. Robert Townsend, and Mrs. Winston McRae, section leaders.

WORK DONE - The girls of Troop 397 rest after getting their area set up. The junior camporee was for girls in the third, fourth and fifth grades. The tents and other heavy equipment were erected for them but there was still plenty of work to be done during the week-end.

Veterans Corner

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q - I am attending school under the G. I. Bill, and my wife has given birth to a son. How do I notify the VA of this additional dependent?

A - Forward immediately to your VA regional office a copy of the child's birth record. Be careful to write your VA file number on the document. It is advisable to attach a note advising the VA that you are training under the G. I. Bill.

Q - My husband was killed in service, and I am thinking of taking advantage of the educational benefits available from the Veterans Administration. Will the VA assist me in working out a program?

A - Yes. You may apply to the VA for vocational counseling. Professional counselors may be able to help you decide on a productive and rewarding program.

Q - When must veterans and dependents receiving pensions return the income questionnaires received with their October checks?

A - Jan. 15 is the deadline. Anyone who has not returned his questionnaire should do so immediately as required by law. Assistance in completing questionnaires may be obtained from the nearest VA office.

Q - I am thinking of selling my home which I purchased with a G.I. loan that is not yet paid in full. If the buyer defaults, will I be liable to the Veterans Administration? Can I be released from such liability?

A - Yes, to both questions. However, the VA may release you only if the buyer assumes full liability for repayment. If such a release is approved, you will not be liable for default by the buyer. Before signing the sales contract, ask the VA office which guaranteed your loan for forms and instructions for release from personal liability.

CHOW LINE - Girls from Troop 190 file past the food table for lunch. The scouts prepared their own meals over charcoal fires during the week-end camp-out.
