Public Affairs Dept. Meeting

The Public Affairs Department of the Raeford Woman's Club met at the Hoke Civic Center on Tuesday evening, May 5. Hostesses were Mrs. Carlton Niven, Mrs. Graham Clark, and Mrs. David Russell.

The program was presented by members of the Chaminade Music Club. Mrs. Mary Lowe played a piano solo. Miss Maude Poole directed a chorus who sang several selections.

Members are urged to attend the open meeting of the Raeford Woman's Club on Thursday evening.

Bridal Shower For Miss Rose

A bridal shower was given for Miss Billie Elizabeth Rose on Friday night at her home. Hostesses were Mrs. Claire Davis, Mrs. Johnny Williamson and Mrs. Burleigh Thompson.

The refreshment table was spread with a beige linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of wyegeia. Cake, punch, mints, nuts and potato chips were served to the 35 guests.

Miss Rose, June bride-elect, was presented a corsage of white pompons.

Farewell Honor For Al Browns

Dr. and Mrs. Bob Townsend were hosts for a dinner party Saturday night, April 25, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Al Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Brown and daughters will make their home in Smithfield at the end of the school year.

The white lace-covered serving table was centered with pink and white azaleas and white candles. Guests were seated at small tables in the living room and den.

Present with the Browns were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hostetter, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Raz Autry and Mr. and Mrs. James Weaver.

The Browns were given comical going-away gifts with the packages decorated with poems and pictures.

John L. Wilson, after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Cameron, returned home to Charleston, S.C. Monday.

August Bride-Elect

Miss Marks is a senior at Hoke High School. Her fiance is a graduate of Hoke High School and attends Fayetteville Technical Institute. He is in the National Guard and is presently stationed at Ft. Polk, La. for basic training.

Parties Honor April Bride

A series of parties last weekend were honors for Mrs. Stanley Dubroff of Willingboro, N.J., the former Ann Livingston of Raeford.

Friday night, Mrs. Ernest Haire, Mrs. Leon Patterson, Mrs. Ruby Conoly and Mrs. Eugene Matherly were hostesses for a miscellaneous bridal shower at the WOW Hall.

Spring flowers and white candles were used on the serving table which was spread with a white linen cloth. Bridal cakes, punch, nuts and mints were served. Mrs. Matherly poured punch.

The bride and her mother received corsages of white flowers and Mrs. Dubroff was presented gifts of china in her pattern from the hostesses. Fifty guests attended.

Mrs. T.B. Lester and her daughter, Mrs. Jack Scarborough, entertained for Mrs. Dubroff with a Coke party on Saturday morning at the Lester home.

Guests were served dainty sandwiches, nuts, mints and Cokes from the dining room table which was covered with a white linen cloth and decorated with an arrangement of yellow gladioli, mums and gypsophila.

Guests wrote favorite recipes for the honoree. The hostesses presented Mrs. Dubroff with a recipe file box and linens.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Larry Newsome of Southern Pines, Miss Linda Morgan of Chapel Hill and Mrs. C.D. Pritchett of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Bill Sellars, Mrs. Irvin McNeill of Fayetteville, and Miss Linda Morgan of Chapel Hill gave a bridal shower party Saturday afternoon at the Sellars home on N. Main St.

Mrs. Dubroff was presented a corsage of kitchen gadgets when she arrived.

Pink and white azaleas were used on the dining room table which was covered with white lace overlaid with pink net. Pink fruit punch, bridal cakes, nuts and mints were served the ten guests. Punch was poured by the bride's mother, Mrs. Paul Livingston.

CLUB CALENDAR

The piano pupils of Mrs. Kerr Stevens will be presented in recital on Friday, May 8, at 7:45 p.m., at the Hoke Civic Center. Mrs. Stevens invites the public to attend.

The Home Life Department of the Raeford Woman's Club will meet Tuesday, May 12, 7:45 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Clayton Buoyer with Mrs. Bill Andrews co-hostess.

The Chaminade Music Club will meet Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the Hoke Civic Center. Hostesses will be Mrs. Archie Howard, Mrs. Robert Wright, Mrs. Gilbert Bernhardt, Mrs. William Colston, and Miss Frances Ward Greene.

The Raeford Woman's Club will meet Thursday night May 7, 8:30, Hoke Civic Center, immediately following the concert by the 82nd Airborne Division Chorus from Ft. Bragg. This concert is sponsored by the Chaminade Music Club and the Kiwanis Club in celebration of Nat'l. Music Week. Woman's Club members have been invited to come at 7:15 p.m. for the concert and remain for the annual business meeting immediately following the concert. It has been suggested at the Executive Board meeting that all officers, committee Chairmen and Dept. Chairmen have written reports to turn in so the club can move quickly to the business meeting.

Miss Ellen Currie and Mrs. John Campbell were weekend guests of Mrs. H.C. McLaughlin of Charlotte. They all attended the Oratorio Singers Concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Lovelace and children of Gaffney, S.C. and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.R. McLean, spent the weekend at Myrtle Beach.
