MRS. MACY REDMAN

Vicki Frahm Honored Thursday

Mrs. Sam Copper, Mrs. R. B. Stone of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Ed Manning entertained with a floating bridal shower Thursday night at the Manning home honoring Miss Vicki Frahm.

Corsages of carnations were presented the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Leonard Frahm, and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J. A. Jones.

A lavender color note was used in the dining room where the table was spread with white overlaid with lavender net. Silver candelabra held candles and epergnes filled with lavender mums and ivy. Punch, lavender-iced cake squares, nuts and mints were served. Stacy Stone of Fayetteville and Christy Frahm poured punch.

The hostesses presented Miss Frahm with a gift of lingerie.

Among the 30 guests were the following from out of town, Mrs. Bill Gozzie of Southern Pines and Mrs. Michael Mayfield of Charleston, S. C.

MRS. FREDDIE WILLIAMS, JR.

Miss McPhatter Is Bride Of Freddie B. Williams, Jr.

Miss Yvonne McPhatter was married to Freddie B. Williams Jr., June 28, at Center Grove Baptist Church. The Rev. E. Edwards officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank McPhatter, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Williams of McBeam, Georgia.

Wedding music was furnished by Russel McAllister Jr., organist and Mrs. Harrell of Laurinburg, soloist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Thomas McPhatter, the bride wore a floor length gown of white angel skin peau and sequin-embroidered peau d'angle lace in empire design with a-line silhouette, batteau neckline, and long fitted sleeves with lace motifs at the outlines. A Chapel length panel train was attached to the shoulder line. The bride's headwear was a cluster of organza petals, outlined with seed pearls and decorated with rhinestones, with elbow-length veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Attending her aunt as maid of honor was Miss Nora Singletary of New York. Bridesmaids were Miss Aggie McPhatter sister of the bride, Washington, D. C., Miss Patricia Graham, niece of the bride, Mrs. Lucille McGreagor and Mrs. Lucille McLean of Raeford.

The flower girl was Deidre Renee Hendrix, grandniece of the bride and ring bearer was Todd Harrell of Laurinburg.

Murphy McRae Jr. of Raeford was best man. Ushers were Elijah and Alexander Williams, brothers of the bridegroom, Ronnie Leon McPhatter nephew of the bride, Harrison Southerland and Cleo Bratcher, all of Raeford.

Following the ceremony the brides' family entertained with a reception in the South Hoke School Cafeteria. The newlyweds are making their home in McBeam, Georgia.

Mrs. Hubbard Bridge Hostess

Members of her bridge club and two visitors, Mrs. Joe Upchurch and Mrs. Bill Smith, met with Mrs. Irvin Hubbard on Thursday night. She served salad and coffee when guests arrived and lemonade and nuts during play.

Mrs. Luke McNeill won the club prize and Mrs. Smith received the visitors prize.

Shower Fetes

Miss Beasley

Bride-elect Mickey Beasley was honored with a miscellaneous shower last Wednesday night at the Educational Building of Antioch Presbyterian Church. Mrs. William Davis and Mrs. Radford Collins were hostesses.

Upon her arrival Miss Beasley was presented a corsage of white pumpkins. The table was centered with yellow and white flowers and yellow candles. Cake squares, punch, nuts and mints were served to the 44 guests attending. Mrs. Malcolm McNeill poured punch and Mrs. Chester Beasley served cake.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Ellis Rouse and her daughter Debbie of Bennettsville, S. C. and Miss Elsie McNeill of Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Plummer and children, Becky and Steve, and Lynn Ivey spent the July 4th weekend in Ft. Walters, Texas visiting Capt. and Mrs. John Plummer and family. Capt. Plummer is in helicopter training.

Married

Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Dudney announce the marriage of their daughter, Nancy Ann, to Airman Jack Wayne Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Sanderson, on Friday, July 10, in Dillon, S. C.

After a two day trip to Myrtle Beach, S.C., Airman Sanderson returned to Loring AFB, Maine. Mrs. Sanderson will join him in the near future.

Bridge Honors

Newcomer

Friday afternoon, Mrs. Israel Mann was hostess for a dessert bridge honoring Mrs. Paul Solomon. The Solomons are making their home on College Drive.

Summer flowers were used in the rooms where the four tables were arranged.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Neill L. McFadyen Jr. for high score and to Mrs. Riley Jordan for consolation. The honoree was remembered with a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bruce Holland announce the birth of a daughter, Stefanie Danielle, July 8 at Scotland Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Holland is the former Carol Horn of Maxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hagins announce the birth of a daughter, Dana Sue, June 18, at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Redman - McPhatter Wedding July 4

On Saturday, July 4, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jones in Berkeley, California, was the setting for the one o'clock wedding of Miss Bettye L. McPhatter of Route 3, Red Springs, and Macy Redman of Fallon, Nevada.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Neil McPhatter and Mr. Redman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry A. Redman of Wilkesboro.

The Rev. Sanford Bates officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride wore a formal white gown and a shoulder-length veil attached to a lace crown. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations tied with pink ribbon.

The bride's attendant was Miss Grace Gelreath, and the bridegroom's brother, Swanson Redman of the U. S. Army, served as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Upchurch High School, attended North Carolina University at Durham, and in 1969 received her B. S. degree from Winston-Salem State University.

The Redmans will live in Berkeley, Calif. until the bridegroom completes his tour of duty with the U. S. Army.
