

Social Events

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Thomas Norman McLaughlin announces the engagement of her daughter, Marie Currie, to Charles Edward Raynor of Fayetteville. Miss McLaughlin is also the daughter of the late Mr. McLaughlin. Mr. Raynor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cicer Harris of Fayetteville, formerly of Raeford. The wedding is planned for December 27.

Invitation

Haselden-Woodcox

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Williford extend a cordial invitation to friends to attend the wedding of Mrs. Williford's daughter, Jacqueline Ann, and Jerry Burton Allen of Raleigh, on Saturday, August 29, at 7:00 p.m., at the Raeford Evangelical Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Woodcox announce the marriage of their daughter, Nellie West, to William S. Haselden on August 10 at the Marriage Chapel in Dillon, S.C.

Victoria Frahm Is Bride Of William C. Jones

Miss Victoria Marie Frahm became the bride of William Clarence Jones in a three o'clock ceremony Saturday at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Fayetteville. Father William C. Frost of Washington, N.C., officiated for the double ring vows.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Frahm of Raeford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Jones of Lumber Bridge.

Altar vases and floor baskets filled with white chrysanthemums, gladioli, and lavender pompons, candelabra with white cathedral candles and palms formed a setting for the vows and the nuptial mass which followed.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Milo Postel, organist, and Preston Phillips of Washington, N.C., vocalist, who sang, "O Perfect Love," "Prayer For A Perfect Life" and "Whither Thou Goest".

Miss Kristin Frahm was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an empire gown of floral organza designed with orchid satin ribbons at the waistline which extended as streamers down the front, and a picture hat adorned with orchid satin ribbon. She carried a colonial nosegay of orchid mums accented with pink sweetheart roses.

The bridesmaids, wearing gowns similar to the honor attendant's and picture hats, were Misses Ann FitzSimons and Pat Macko of Raeford, Miss Peggy Fox of Belmont, Miss Jackie Price of Caroleen and Miss Jo Ann Bruce of High Point. They carried colonial nosegays like the maid of honor's.

Cynthia Frahm was flower girl for her sister. She wore an orchid organza dress made along empire lines. Her headpiece was styled with orchid net, pink sweetheart roses and orchid satin streamers. She carried a white basket of flowers in bridal white.

Andrew Frahm, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

MRS. WILLIAM C. JONES

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of organza and Chantilly lace fashioned in Regency style with high neckline ruffled in lace, empire waistline and A-line skirt. Her mantilla, worn in a madonna drape, was made of imported Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade of glamellias.

Whiteford Jones of Annandale, Va., served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Jimmy Jones of Lumber Bridge, brother of the bridegroom; Leslie Frahm of Belmont, brother of the bride; Lynwood Hayes of Lumber Bridge, and Randy Walker, Joe Holt, Eddie McNeill, Mac Sessions and Leroy Williams, all of Raeford.

Timothy Frahm, brother of the bride, was altar server and John Frahm, another brother, was leader.

The mother of the bride wore blue lace with blue and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in pink brocade with pink and white accessories. Both mothers had white glamella corsages.

For a wedding trip to the coast, the bride wore a red dress with navy accessories. Upon their return the newlyweds will be at home at 454 McRae Street, Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke High School and attended UNC-Charlotte for two years. The bridegroom, a Navy veteran, is a graduate of Hoke High School and is employed by Universal C.I.T. in Fayetteville.

Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Frahm were hosts for a reception in the church social hall following the ceremony.

The receiving line was composed of the bridal couple, their parents and bridal attendants.

The table was centered with a silver candelabrum cascaded with pink and white carnations, lavender pompons and gypsophila.

Mrs. Rudy Cobb and Mrs. Whiteford Jones pointed punch and Mrs. John McNeill and Mrs. Dick Oliver served wedding cake. They were assisted by Linda Harrell, Stacy Stone of Fayetteville, Patti Peoples, Lydia Farmer and Jodi Upchurch.

Reginald and Randy Frahm, brothers of the bride, kept the guest register.

Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burnett and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Upchurch who greeted guests, and Mr. and Mrs. T.B. Lester and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Manning who said goodbyes.

Bridesmaids Luncheon

Mrs. William Gozzi Jr. of Southern Pines gave the bridesmaid luncheon Friday at the Sheraton Motel.

The table was decorated with a centerpiece of orchid asters and pink gladioli with accents of white daisies.

The bridesmaids and the flower girl were presented gifts by the bride.

Each one attending was given a hand blown bud vase containing pink roses and a daisy by the hostess.

of town guests were entertained at a post-rehearsal party Friday evening at the Ed Manning home.

The house was decorated in the bride's colors of lavender and white.

Nuts, mints, dips, cheese and crackers, bread sticks and relishes were served with iced drinks.

Wedding Breakfast

Mrs. Earl Gordon, Mrs. Wyatt Upchurch, Mrs. Martin Webb, Mrs. Berde Niven of Raeford and Mrs. William Gozzi of Southern Pines gave the wedding breakfast at 11:30 Saturday at the Hoke Civic Center.

Garlands of Southern smilax were used down the centers of the tables which were spread with white linen. The bride's table was decorated with a miniature bride and groom and white wedding bells.

An arrangement of lavender asters and gladioli decorated a side table.

Bride Couple

Honored Sunday

Miss Frances Gary Clarke and Daniel Fairly McInnis were honored Sunday with a luncheon held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T.L. Wood, grandparents of the prospective bridegroom. Other hostesses were aunts of Mr. McInnis.

The table was spread with a cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink roses. Thirty guests attended.

The bridal couple, who will be married September 12 in Richmond, Va., were presented a gift of silver.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clason of Route No. 2 Raeford, announce the birth of a daughter, Jennifer Louise, August 18th at Cape Fear Valley Hospital.

Vicky L. Gillis

Show Honor

Miss Vicki Lynn Gillis, August 30th bride-elect of Gerald Sawyer, was honored with a miscellaneous shower last Wednesday night at the Antioch Church Educational Building. Hostesses were Mrs. G.B. Bostic and Mrs. W.B. McDaniels.

Miss Gillis was presented a corsage of white carnations.

Silver candle holders with epigenettes filled with yellow and white summer flowers, decorated the refreshment table which was covered with an embroidered linen and lace cloth. Bridal cake squares, punch, cheese straws, nuts and mints were served. Mrs. Lemon Biner served cake and Mrs. Herbert Gillis presided at the punch bowl.

CHARLOTTE BLUME

SCHOOL of DANCE

Will Teach Classes In Raeford

GRADED BALLET

Separate Classes In TAP - ACROBATIC Classes Will Start Sept. 16

At Raeford Elementary School

TO ENROLL YOUR CHILD CALL
In Raeford 875-4573
In Fayetteville 483-3453

Be The Best Dressed Man On Campus With a Complete College Wardrobe from ... Sugar's

A Campus Must -- THE CORDUROY SUIT

By Peters

A Good Looking Sportcoat & Suit ALL IN ONE

Those attending, in addition to the bride and her attendants, were the bride elect's mother, Mrs. Leonard Frahm, the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. J.A. Jones, and Miss Kelly Gozzi, daughter of the hostess.

Post-Rehearsal Party

The wedding party and out

Perfect For College:

THE BLAZER SUIT

By Palm Beach

A 6-Button D. B. Blazer With 2 Pairs Of Pants (1 Matching, 1 coordinating) Navy & Camel

Whiteford Jones of Annandale, Va., served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Jimmy Jones of Lumber Bridge, brother of the bridegroom; Leslie Frahm of Belmont, brother of the bride; Lynwood Hayes of Lumber Bridge, and Randy Walker, Joe Holt, Eddie McNeill, Mac Sessions and Leroy Williams, all of Raeford.

Timothy Frahm, brother of the bride, was altar server and John Frahm, another brother, was leader.

The mother of the bride wore blue lace with blue and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in pink brocade with pink and white accessories. Both mothers had white glamella corsages.

For a wedding trip to the coast, the bride wore a red dress with navy accessories. Upon their return the newlyweds will be at home at 454 McRae Street, Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke High School and attended UNC-Charlotte for two years. The bridegroom, a Navy veteran, is a graduate of Hoke High School and is employed by Universal C.I.T. in Fayetteville.

Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Frahm were hosts for a reception in the church social hall following the ceremony.

The receiving line was composed of the bridal couple, their parents and bridal attendants.

The table was centered with a silver candelabrum cascaded with pink and white carnations, lavender pompons and gypsophila.

Mrs. Rudy Cobb and Mrs. Whiteford Jones pointed punch and Mrs. John McNeill and Mrs. Dick Oliver served wedding cake. They were assisted by Linda Harrell, Stacy Stone of Fayetteville, Patti Peoples, Lydia Farmer and Jodi Upchurch.

Reginald and Randy Frahm, brothers of the bride, kept the guest register.

Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burnett and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Upchurch who greeted guests, and Mr. and Mrs. T.B. Lester and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Manning who said goodbyes.

Bridesmaids Luncheon

Mrs. William Gozzi Jr. of Southern Pines gave the bridesmaid luncheon Friday at the Sheraton Motel.

The table was decorated with a centerpiece of orchid asters and pink gladioli with accents of white daisies.

The bridesmaids and the flower girl were presented gifts by the bride.

Each one attending was given a hand blown bud vase containing pink roses and a daisy by the hostess.

Blazers By Scothurst & Palm Beach

Red, Navy, Gray, Camel & Brown

Men's Sweaters & Sweater Shirts

by MR. KNITTER, PURITAN & MUNSINGWEAR All Colors

BE BOLD THIS FALL!

New Fall Styles in Sportcoats, Suits, Slacks, Trousers, Jackets, Coats, Caps, Hats, Belts, Shoes, Socks, Underwear, Cuff Links, Belts, Gold Cup Socks, Underwear by MUNSINGWEAR

TIES BY MR. JOHN, MAN'S, BEA BRUMMELL over 2000 to choose from

SHOP
FRIDAY NIGHTS
Until 8:30 P.M.

JOE SUGAR'S

of Raeford

"A Store For Men & Boys"

Men's Shoes

by FLORSHEIM,
CROSBY SQUARE, BASS,
HUSH PUPPY

Large Selection of Styles
Sizes 7-13 B.C., D.E., & 3E's