MRS. GERALD KEVIN SAWYER

Vicky Lynn Gillis Bride Of Mr. Sawyer

Miss Vicky Lynn Gillis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clifton Gillis of Antioch, became the bride of Gerald Kevin Sawyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Roosevelt Sawyer of Graham, in a five o'clock ceremony Sunday at Antioch Presbyterian Church. The Rev. B.F. Ferguson officiated for the double ring rites.

The altar was decorated with Spiral brass candelabra, entwined with greenery, and a white kneeling bench.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Sarah McDonald, organist, and Earle A. Watson who sang, "Wedding Prayer".

The maid of honor was Miss Carolyn Jean Laws of Bluefield, W. Va., college roommate of the bride. She was attired in a formal-length gown of maize bengaline with a modified high waistline and dirndl skirt. White Venetian lace motifs accented the high neckline and long full sleeves. She wore a headpiece of multicolored satin loops and flowers, and carried a nosegay of mixed summer flowers.

Bridesmaids, whose dresses and flowers were like those of the honor attendant, were Miss Rita Joe Gillis of Antioch, sister of the bride, Miss Patricia Sawyer of Graham, the bridegroom's sister, Miss Sherry Baldwin of Antioch and Mrs. Robert Strother of Raeford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of imported silk organza in A-linedesign, fashioned with long sleeves and a detachable wattleau train. Venetian lace motifs adorned the Victorian neckline, bodice and cuffs. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a headpiece of lacy leaf clusters encrusted with seed pearls and she carried a cascade of mixed summer flowers centered with a white orchid.

Jeter Webb Sawyer of Graham served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Larry Sawyer of Graham, brother of the bridegroom, Mark Gillis of Antioch, brother of the bride, Lynn Stafford and Steve Wood of Graham, Tom Hutchinson of Charlotte and Bruce Woodard of Southern Pines.

The bride's mother wore a light green peau de soie with matching accessories. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in mint green silk with matching accessories. Both mothers had corsages of yellow roses.

RECEPTION

Follow the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Hostesses, all aunts of the bride, were Mrs. Lamont Bruner, Mrs. John Hair, Miss Effie Bruner, Mrs. Herbert McRacken and Mrs. James Bruner.

The guest register was kept by Mrs. Bob Garris and Miss Winborn Howell.

For the wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga., the bride chose a sleeveless dress of dusty rose silk-wool blend with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Upon their return the newlyweds will be at home on Dundee Road in Pinehurst.

The bride is a graduate of UNC-Greensboro. The bridegroom was graduated from N.C. State University.
