United Way Campaign Opened By Governor

It was announced today that Governor Robert W. Scott has proclaimed the period of September 15 to November 15, 1970 as UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN TIME IN NORTH CAROLINA. Governor Scott's strong interest in the United Way Campaign is evidenced by the fact he has agreed to serve as Honorary Chairman of the forthcoming campaigns. In meeting with the leadership of North Carolina United Community Services with which 73 United Fund campaigns are affiliated, he commended the United Way program to all citizens in North Carolina.

Last year, the 73 United Way Campaigns on which reports are available raised $12,950,000 for local, state and national programs of service. For 1970-71, these same campaigns will seek an estimated aggregate goal of $13,840,000 representing a 6.87% increase over the amount raised last year.

In the period of September 15 through October 15, the United Way campaigns will be getting under way. In excess of 75,000 volunteer campaign workers will be involved. From every standpoint, the United Way represents the largest single voluntary effort in North Carolina.

The County Convention where farmer-chosen delegates elect farmers to fill vacancies on the Hoke County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee was held September 21, 1970 at 7:30 p.m. at the Hoke County ASC's Office, according to Thomas R. The convention was open to the public, however only the farmer-delegates to the convention could participate in the election process.

County committeemen are elected for three-year staggered terms, and the service of each committeeman is limited to three consecutive terms, Burgess said. First and second alternates were also elected, each for a 1-year term.

Woman At ICAF

WASHINGTON (ANF) - The Department of the Army's Mrs. Agatha S. Walman is the first female federal employee to be selected to attend the Industrial College of the Armed Forces (ICAF) here. She is technical chief of the Systems Analysis Branch, Systems Development Division, U.S. Army Strategy and Tactics Group, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Military Operations.

Attendance at ICAF prepares selected key military personnel and Department of Defense civilians for important command, staff and policy-making positions in the national and international security structure.

transportation was a major need for the people. She said that buses would be helpful to senior citizens who would get into town to pay bills or shop.

Mrs. Joe Guldedge said "I know the economic situation of senior citizens comes first but senior citizens need to love and to be loved. We need to be understood. There is a lack of understanding between older and younger citizens. We need encouragement to perform the things we can do well. We need to understand our physical ailments and disabilities and to be motivated to do the things we can do."

"We need to learn to accept gracefully our new situation in life. We are no longer in the mainstream maybe, raising a family or so on, but that doesn't mean we aren't useful."

J.R. Thomas, advised the group that young people should be educated to begin preparing for retirement at an early age and should prepare for the future.

"I joined railroad retirement in 1927 and tried to prepare myself. I am perfectly satisfied with my retirement. I'm happy with it and I feel I have lived a useful life."

Mrs. T.C. Lowery urged those who were able to prepare meals for themselves to help others. "It doesn't take much to cook a little more and carry it to someone who can't help themselves," she said.

Mrs. Rena Smith spoke vigorously in support of trying to obtain the services of a visiting nurse.

"They have one in Durham, I think we should let Gov. Scott's office know and let them know in Washington, its the little rural counties that are suffering. Its the rural residents who need a visiting nurse, not the woman in Durham."

"We can be a little ashamed here that we haven't had enough compassion for the sick," she said.

Mrs. Josephine Hall, speaking for a senior citizen who was not able to attend, cited the need to simplify the language on the Medicare forms and also stressed the need for better housing in the county.

After the audience had finished speaking, they were given a questionnaire to fill out which will be evaluated by the conference staff.

FORUM - Mrs. Ellen Willis (standing) welcomes senior citizens to the Hoke County Senior Citizen forum Tuesday at Raeford Methodist Church. A panel representing local groups listened as senior citizens spoke out on the needs of older residents. Shown left to right are Mrs. Bonnie Niven, recorder, Mrs. Missouri Oxendine, Sandhills Community Action Program; Mrs. Charles Hostetler, Raeford Woman's Club; Rev. Jack Mansfield, moderator, John K. McNeill, mayor of Raeford and T.C. Jones, chairman of the county board of commissioners.

In 1940, Bogey played Chips Maguire in "It All Came True." You paid 20 cents to watch. And if you were really in the money, you had a nickel left over for a bag of popcorn. Since then, the cost of living has gone up about 160 percent. But the average price of electricity for your home has gone down. Today, it's just about half what it was when the chips were down for bad guy Maguire.
