David Upchurch Nominated For Morehead Scholarship

David Tuttle Upchurch is one of 23 nominees from District III for the Morehead Awards who will be interviewed Jan. 8 in Elizabethtown by the District III Morehead Selection Committee.

Six finalists will be chosen from the district to appear in Chapel Hill March 4-8 for interviews with the Central Morehead Selection Committee. Each of the state's ten Morehead Awards district committees will select six finalists to be interviewed in Chapel Hill along with 52 nominees from 26 private preparatory schools.

The Morehead Foundation's Board of Trustees makes the final selection of winners. Hugh G. Chatham of Elkin is chairman. Members are Alan T. Dickson of Charlotte, Frank Borden Hanes of Winston-Salem, Richard T. Chatham, Jr. of Elkin and Dr. Robert Cluett of York University in Toronto, Canada.

District III is composed of Hoke, Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, Cumberland, Harnett, Lee, Moore, New Hanover, Richmond, Robeson and Scotland counties.

Morehead Awards provide all expense paid undergraduate education at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. With the increase in tuition and other education expenses, the Morehead Foundation Trustees have increased the value of the award to $2,250 per year, making the four-year award for N.C. residents $9,000.

The Awards were established in 1951 by the late John Motley Morehead, a UNC graduate and native North Carolinian. He resided in Rye, N.Y. until his death in 1965.

David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr. of 112 W. 6th Ave.
