Partie Fete ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED Newlyweds

Mrs. Fred Breth and her daughters, Mrs. Connie and Carolyn Cullen of Charlotte, entertained with a buffet luncheon Sunday honoring a recent bride, Mrs. Charles Raynor, and her mother, Mrs. T.N. McLaughlin.

Wedding decorations decorated the covers and the place settings of the small tables arranged in the recreation room. The bride's table was decorated with a crystal bowl of yellow mums and gladioli. Flowers were laid out for 24 guests.

The hostess gift to the honor guest was silver in her selected pattern.

On Friday night, Misses Willa, Bonnie, Eloise and Jeannette Mauchlin were hostesses for family dinner, honoring the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raynor. Mrs. Raynor is a niece of the Misses Mauchlin.

A color not of yellow and white was used and the meal for 21 guests was served buffet style.

After dinner guests played games and conversed around an open fire.

Sandhills Club Meets Jan. 14

The Sandhills Christian Women's Club will observe Guest Night on January 14, at 7:00 p.m. at the Country Club of North Carolina.

The guest list will be Dave Boyer, a contemporary recording artist and entertainer. He has made television appearances in the United States and Canada, and appeared on this program a year ago.

Reservations will be made by tickets only and these can be obtained by writing Mrs. Vivian McKenzie, Pinehurst, N.C. 28374 or telephone 295-6583.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dickson of Raeford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Ann, to Louis Henry Fogleman Jr. of Greensboro, son of Mrs. Louis Henry Fogleman of Wadesboro and the late Mr. Fogleman. A February wedding is planned. Miss Dickson attended the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She made her debut at the 1965 Terpsichorean Ball in Raleigh, and is a member of the Charlotte Spinners Club. In Charlotte, she has been employed by W. Thomas Ray, attorney. Mr. Fogleman was graduated from Davidson College and the University of North Carolina Law School, and is a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. He is a vice-president and regional trust officer for First Union National Bank of Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Lovelace and children of Gaffney, S.C., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.R. McLean, during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Clark and daughter Jennifer of Grand Prairie, Texas, are visiting his aunt, Mrs. Roger Dixon, and Mr. Dixon.

Woman's Club Met Tuesday

The Raeford Woman's Club met on Tuesday evening, January 5, at the Hoke Civic Center.

Reports were given by officers, committee chairman and department chairman. It was reported that the 1971 Fine Arts Festival will be February 20. All club members are encouraged to participate in this project. The exhibit will be open to the public. Details will be printed in this paper in the near future. Local students will enter their art works and creative writing and musical presentations.

After the business session, Mrs. Dick Neely introduced Alfred Leach, who spoke to the group about the controversial topic "Air Pollution".

The meeting was adjourned and members of the Education Department invited members and guests to remain for refreshments. A "Happy New Year's" theme was used in decorations and refreshments.
