Miss Matherly is taking part during the spring quarter, beginning March 10 through May 27, in the student teaching program of Appalachian State University, Boone, N.C. In this program, students devote approximately twelve weeks to student teaching in the field for which they have been preparing.

Miss Matherly is teaching second grade under the supervision of Mrs. Carolyn Williams. As part of the teaching program, the Appalachian student usually lives in the community near the school and participates in community activities as well as school activities. The student devotes full time in the school and gradually takes over the full teaching load, always under the supervision of the teacher and the principal. 1st In 40 Years

On March 15, at eleven o'clock in the morning, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Solomon entertained approximately fifty out of town relatives on the occasion of the birth of their son, Andrew Mark, on March 8. The celebration, known as a briss, falls on the eighth day after the male infant's birth and commemorates his circumcision by which he is initiated into the Covenant of Abraham, an age old tradition among those of the Jewish faith. Special honors are designated at this time. The baby's godmother, Jacquelyn Sugar, is the sister of Mrs. Solomon, while the godfather, Steven Solomon, is the brother of Mr. Solomon. The title of honorary godfather was bestowed upon Israel Mann. The baby's Hebrew name is also given at the briss. Dr. Ernest Brown and Dr. Hubert Meyer Jr. of Lumberton and Rabbi Henry Ucko of Fayetteville officiated at the briss. Brunch was served at the Solomon home on College Drive to the many relatives who came from various parts of North and South Carolina. The centerpiece on the main table consisted of a large arrangement of yellow spider chrysanthemums and purple irises, while a table in the adjoining room was adorned with an arrangement of blue and white carnations.
