Wilson Sessoms of Glenn Bernie, Md. takes The News-Journal and would like to see news about his relatives as well as all the other folks he knows in this area, but sometimes there is none available as of now.

MARYOLY YOURS

by MARY ODOM

So much to share with you! Monday night sessions are almost Teacher Nights. School folks from everywhere drive up after school to attend this session. I appreciate so many stopping by to speak to me. We are expecting a delegation from Lumberton this Monday.

We split on a bill to change election day. I voted for this bill Friday but intend to change my vote this week after talking with home folks. Apparently our black citizens see this bill to change primary election day from Saturday to Tuesday as a threat to their voting privileges. I frankly don't agree that this was the intent of the bill but if they see or imagine some danger in making the change, I'm willing to respect their views and oppose the change. Surely whether we cast our ballots on Tuesdays or Saturdays is not worth developing another racial issue. We have enough now. It is my conviction that people who take their citizenship responsibilities seriously are going to get to the polls no matter what day is decreed election day.

Education and ABC committees met Wednesday and I attended the Banking Committee public hearing and spoke in behalf of Richard Clark's Buyer Protection bill. Thursday those against the bill were heard and I confess to absolute amazement at so much opposition to a bill that has such good intentions. It is difficult for me to believe that the lobbyists who have spoken truly represent legitimate businesses. Certainly the retailer and bankers I know would have no part in consumer exploitation as has been documented by the Attorney General's office.

The sight of familiar faces at the State house or in Raleigh is always encouraging. Visitors this week were W.F. Davis, now superintendent from Stokes county. Dr. Ken Newbold, J.T. Odom, Grace Cashwell, and Si Vaughn. Jim Bue served as page in the House this week and was both a help and good company.

For the protection of their own good name, I hope local retailers, lawyers, bankers, and other lenders in this area will study the bill carefully and send suggestions for improvement. Those of us who signed it readily agree there may be need for revisions but to kill the bill outright and suggest no alternative to control abuses of our free enterprise system, is asking for license to exploit.

Other activities for me this week included making a speech to the Guilford County Democratic Women in Greensboro, attending Yam Association banquet and the N.C. Citizens Association luncheon and banquet.

In Finance Committee I had to object to giving a favorable report to a veteran's association sponsored bill until I can get additional information. On the surface it doesn't seem like a fair bill but I'll reserve judgment until I can gather more facts. Action on the bill has been delayed thirty days.

Q - My husband is in a nursing home. He is a veteran, but his condition is not related to military service. Will VA pay for his nursing home care?
A - VA is permitted to provide nursing home care for a limited time, only for those veterans who have received maximum benefit from VA hospitalization yet still need nursing.

Q - How long will a veteran who was retired Nov. 1, 1970 for total disability be covered by his Servicemen's Group Life Insurance?
A - Coverage under SGLI will continue while he is totally disabled, but not beyond one year. Within the year, he may convert his SGLI (maximum $15,000) to an individual policy at standard rates with any company participating in the SGLI program. Also, within a year of notice of his service-connected disability, he can apply for a $10,000 low cost RH policy from VA.

Q - My husband died in service in 1946. Am I still eligible for his home loan benefit?
A - Yes. Under recently passed legislation, unused, expired loan benefits were restored for World War II and Korean Conflict veterans and eligible, unmarried widows of these veterans.

At the 24th district caucus we finally agreed to extend the time of merger vote on Robeson County schools until November, 1972 and a bill was introduced to that effect. It is my sincere hope that all my suggestions for the mechanics act that must follow will be sent to us in writing immediately so that we can begin consideration. We surely do not want any hasty action toward the end of the session when we are all so tired we can't see straight.

All of us supported the Constitutional amendment referendum bill in regards to 18 year olds voting. As best I recall we all four voted for the Cumberland County annexation bill. This was a difficult decision since the Cumberland delegation was split on the issue. My own decision was based on thinking that, if they couldn't decide themselves, it would be better

Copper can be rolled into sheets less than 1/500th of an inch thick.

Read Luke 18:35-43 (Jesus) asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" (Luke 18:40-41 RSV)

In her book The Honeycomb, Adela Rogers St. John records that she once interviewed Knute Rockne, the famous football coach of Notre Dame University. "What do you want most in a football player," she asked, "weight, speed, or brains?" To her surprise he replied, "None of these - a desire to play football."

Desire has a place in religion as well as in sports. On several occasions, Jesus said to persons, "What do you want to do for you?" In each instance the person's inward desire was for healing and wholeness. Without the desire to be free from a habit, an attitude, an infirmity, not even Christ can help us. Our desire is the key. The blind man knew what he wanted above all else. We need to search ourselves and ask what it is that we need most. Once the desire is sharpened and we ask in faith, we may hear Christ say, "Be thou made whole."

PRAYER: O Christ, the great physician whose touch can make us whole, fulfill our deepest desire that we may be strengthened in body and renewed in spirit. Amen. THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Our desire is the key if we expect Christ to help us. William R. Guffick (New Jersey)
