Farm Items

By W. S. Young and David Bodenheimer

According to latest reports 191,752 allotment acres of cotton from 13,006 farms have been signed in the program in North Carolina for the 1971 year. These figures do not include any extra cotton planted above the farm allotment. The figures indicate an increase of about 15,000 planted acres over 1970. About 80% of the State's cotton crop was planted by the end of April. Seed rot and other problems will necessitate between 15 to 25 percent replant. Before plowing up the cotton there are several points to remember. These are: four plants per foot of row will give maximum yields, one plant per foot per acre can produce a profitable crop and a 65% stand in late planting season is better than the risk of replanting.

Demand for cotton has increased and prices have increased. Contracts have been offered by shippers to producers for crop lots of 1971 North Carolina and South Carolina cotton at 25 1/2 cents. Some Memphis cotton has been contracted at 26 cents. A study of the marketing situation can make you some money from cotton.

A number of new herbicides have been cleared for soybeans and corn recently. Most of these are mixtures of chemicals. It is being recognized that it takes these combinations to do a complete weed control job. For pre-emerge use in soybeans Lasso and Preemerge is recommended at 2 to 3 lbs. plus 1.5 to 2.0. For early preemerge, the same product at 1.5 to 3 lbs. plus .75 to 1.12 lbs. is recommended.

Corn pre-emerge is Aatrix and Princep at 1 to 1.5 lbs. per acre. Post emergence is a chemical called EVIK at the rates of 0.6 to 2.0 lbs. used as a directed spray.

Of course there are several of the older chemicals that still do a good job. There is not much excuse for a weekly corn crop today.

Now your child can have the advantages of private tutoring.

Being tutored isn't just for the rich. Not since Learning Foundations came to town.

We're America's largest system of programmed learning centers - and we've dramatically lowered the cost of tutoring for students from first grade through college.

Good news. Because at one time and another, every student needs tutoring: To boost grades. To sharpen skills. To catch up. To get ahead. To learn faster. To get ready for college boards.

We'll tutor your child in all basic subjects and study skills. He'll work in his own study area... at his own pace... with his own private electronic tutor... taking lessons prepared by professors from Purdue, Northwestern, UCLA and so on. All for a fraction of the cost of a conventional private tutor.

We'd like to tell you more, and we will - if you'll mail the coupon or give us a call. Thank you.
