Mrs. Walter Coley was winner of the high score prize and Mrs. Autry received the consolation. Bingo prizes went to Mrs. Joe Upchurch and Mrs. June Johnson.

Club members presented a bracelet to Mrs. Carroll Wilburn. The Wilburns are moving soon to Drake's Branch, Va.

Jerri Ann Vanhoy Honored Thursday

Miss Jerri Ann Vanhoy of Ashley Heights was honored on Thursday of last week with a miscellaneous bridal shower held at the home of Miss Becky Conoly on E. Donaldson Ave.

The honoree received a corsage of pink rosebuds and hostess gifts were Tupperware and an electric griddle.

The refreshment table, spread with white damask, held a two-tiered centerpiece of pink roses. The 25 guests were served bridal cakes, punch, nuts and mints.

Miss Vanhoy is to be married to Dale A. Wall of Pinebluff on June 12.

MRS. JOSEPH ANDREW STRICKHOUSER

Miss Gloria Jean Hollingsworth became the bride of Joseph Andrew Strickhouser at 3:30 p.m. Sunday at the Raeford Presbyterian Church. The Rev. C.A. Cooper Jr. of Marietta, Ga. performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Estelle Davis Hollingsworth of Durham. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Fredrick Strickhouser of Charlotte.

Josef Privette presented a program of nuptial music.

The church was decorated with palms, altar candles and baskets filled with gaidioli, pompons and yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Sharon Siler of Siler City was maid of honor for her cousin and Mrs. Larry Lee Moser was matron of honor. They wore floor-length, orange, green and white print dresses fashioned with scoop necklines and puffed sleeves accented with shoulder bows, and A-line skirts with horizontal prints at the hemline. They wore yellow daisies in their hair and they carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies, gold and orange sweetheart roses, accented with moss green bows.

Wearing identical dresses and flowers to those of the honor attendants, the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Ann Strickhouser of Atlanta, Ga., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Suzanne Hayes of Fremont and Miss Betsy Duke of Virginia Beach, Va., former suitmates of the bride at N.C.S.U.

Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Robin Clark, Jackie Bray and Pamela Heath, all of Raeford. Their solid-color dresses were yellow, orange and moss green and they carried arm bouquets of yellow roses tied with moss green bows.

Children in the wedding were Robin Baxley and Maria Townsend, flower girls, and Lawrence Calloway, ring bearer, all cousins of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William A. Davis. She wore a gown of silk organza fashioned with portrait neckline, empire bodice with baby doll sleeves accented with venise lace and satin ribbons, flounced hemline trimmed with lace and ribbon and chapel train, flounced and trimmed to match her gown. Natural flowers of baby's breath and sweetheart roses formed her headpiece which held the illusion veil, and she carried a nosegay of white sweetheart roses, baby's breath and white ribbons.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Kenneth Edward Hollingsworth of Durham, brother of the bride, Stephen Michael Hassell of Elizabeth City, Mark Roger Seagle of Lincolnton and Keith William Greer of Boone, former college roommates of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore a dress and sleeveless coat ensemble of yellow silk linen and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe dress and blue accessories. Both mothers had white orchid corsages.

For travel, the bride wore an orange pantsuit and had a white orchid corsage. After their wedding trip to the coast the bridal couple will be at home in Charlotte.

Following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. William N. Davis, grandmother of the bride, and members of her family were hosts for a barbeque supper of Saturday evening. The 100 guests included the wedding party, relatives and out of town guests.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke High School and is a student at N.C. State University. The bridegroom is a 1971 graduate of N.C. State University.

Miss Hollingsworth Honored With Kitchen Shower

Terese Moser was hostess at her home with a kitchen shower for Miss Gloria Hollingsworth on Saturday, May 15. The hostess presented a corsage of white carnations to the bride-elect on her arrival.

A color scheme of green was carried throughout. The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth centered with an arrangement of roses and green candles. Lime punch, cake squares, mints and nuts were served to 12 guests.

Luncheon For Visitors

Sgt. and Mrs. Michael N. Moore were honored with a luncheon Wednesday of last week at the Otis Webb home. Mrs. Moore, who is the former Linda Webb, is also an Air Force sergeant. The Moores were enroute from Eglin AFB, Florida to duty in Ankara, Turkey.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Webb, Billy and Sally Jo, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Webb Jr., Jackie and Vickie of Southport, Mrs. Duncan Hanes of Fayetteville, J.A. Webb Sr., Mrs. Ted Lunsford and Mrs. Jean Colson.
