Turner-Gillis Wedding Sunday At Galatia

Miss Mary Jane Stewart Gillis of Fayetteville became the bride of Roy Turner of Fairfield, California, in an afternoon ceremony solemnized Sunday, August 8, at Galatia Presbyterian Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McNatt Gillis of Fayetteville. Mr. Turner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turner of Fairfield, California. The Rev. Russell Fleming officiated at the double ring service.

The program of nuptial music was presented by Mason Bell, organist, and Miss Kathrine Elizabeth Auman and William John Gillis, soloists. The soloists are cousins of the bride.

Mr. Gillis gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal, princess-line gown of satin in natural silk white made with long-sleeved bodice and a scalloped romance neckline. Lace motifs centered the length of the front of the gown and the lower edge of the cathedral length train was bordered with lace. The bride's camelot cap of seed pearls with a satin bow in the back held a cathedral-length mantilla veil of candlelight silk illusion overlaid with three tiers of elbow length illusion. Around her neck, she wore a small engagement ring pendant given to her by Mr. Turner on their first Christmas together. She carried her mother's white satin wedding prayer book, decorated with stephanotis and gypsophila around a gold-throated orchid.

Mrs. James Floyd McKethan of Boone was her cousin's matron of honor. Miss Juanita Joy Turner, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Mrs. Roger Riley McLean of Wilmington, cousin of the bride, was a bridesmaid. The honor attendants and Mrs. McLean wore aqua blue shantung gowns featuring high waists, scooped necklines and cape sleeves. The low backs were accented by big bows at the top of full panels. In their hair the attendants wore ropes of seed pearls created by a North Carolina craftsman. They carried colonial bouquets of mixed summer flowers.

The junior bridesmaids, all cousins of the bride, were Miss Mary Gaston Mashburn and Miss Melissa Morgan Mashburn of Colorado Springs, Colorado; Miss Georgia Ann Green and Miss Kathrine Ann Hamilton and Miss Sharon Leigh Johnson of Raleigh. They were dressed in gowns of white and pink flowers on a blue background, designed with high round necklines, empire waists, circled by pink velvet ribbon sashes, and short, puffed sleeves. They carried bouquets similar to those of the honor attendants.

Major Wayne Morgan Mashburn, U.S. Air Force, of Colorado Springs, Colorado attended as Mr. Turner's best man. Ushers were James David Gillis and Joseph Harmon Gillis of Fayetteville, brothers of the bride; Loyd Edward Auman, cousin of the bride, and Ronald Keith Bruton, both of Fayetteville; Eddie Green of Reidsville; and Roger Riley McLean of Wilmington.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the Church Fellowship Hall.

After their wedding trip, the couple will travel to Fairfield, California, making extended stops in Colorado Springs, Colorado and Great Falls, Montana. In Great Falls, they will visit Captain and Mrs. John McNatt Gillis Jr.

The bride is a graduate of Peace College, Raleigh, and North Carolina State University where she majored in sociology. She has done graduate work at N.C.S.U.

Mr. Turner served with the United States Air Force. He attended Napa College, Napa, California, and is a student at Solana College, Fairfield, California.

Pre-Wedding Parties

Miss Mary Jane Stewart Gillis was showered with gifts on Thursday, July 29, at Galatia Presbyterian Church.

Miss Gillis and her mother, Mrs. John McNatt Gillis, were presented corsages of roses. Miss Gillis was also presented a place setting of china by the hostesses.

The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of mixed summer flowers.

Miss Juanita Joy Turner of Fairfield, California, was presented at this time to the seventy friends of the bride-elect who called during the evening. She is the sister of

MRS. ROY TURNER

Miss Gillis' fiance, Roy Turner.

Miss Gillis and Mr. Turner were honored recently at dinner at the home of Mrs. Mollie Wiggins Shook in Raleigh.

Surprise Party Honors Curries

Paul Currie was host for a surprise party last Tuesday night honoring his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Scott Currie Jr., on their wedding anniversary.

The refreshment table was centered with a silver punch bowl and also held an assortment of party sandwiches, chips and dips.

The Curries were remembered with crystal gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee of Dunn and Mrs. Kathleen Blue Wilson spent last weekend in Williamsburg, Va.

Places were laid for fourteen at tables covered with red cotton cloths and decorated with hurricane lamps and flowers from the garden of Mr. Hamilton.

Miss Gillis was honored at a bride's luncheon on Tuesday, August 3, at the home of Mrs. Loyd Edward Auman in the Seventy-First community. Hostesses were Mrs. Loyd Edward Auman, Mrs. Gilbert Lewis Lindsay, Mrs. David Fairley Lindsay, and Mrs. John Harmon Lindsay, cousins of the bride-elect.

The house was decorated with flowers from the gardens of the hostesses. Miss Gillis; her mother; Mrs. Carl Turner, and Mrs. Malcolm Dobbin Gillis Sr. and Mrs. Anton Pollmann, grandmothers of the bride-elect and the prospective bridegroom were presented corsages of white carnations.

The bride's table was spread with cutwork linen and centered summer flowers. The guest tables were covered with white linen cloths and decorated with ivy.

Miss Gillis was presented a gift in silver. Places were laid for twenty-one guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turner of Fairfield, California, entertained twenty members of the wedding party at dinner at Seven Mountains on Friday evening.

The candlelit tables were decorated with magnolia.

An after-rehearsal party was given Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Dobbin Gillis Jr., uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Malcolm Dobbin Gillis Sr., grandmother of the bride.

Other hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Woodard Edmundson, uncle and aunt of the bride, Mrs. William Tillman, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. James Floyd McKethan, cousins of the bride.

Covered with a white linen cloth, the refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of mixed flowers and candelabra.

Mrs. Neil Dobbin Gillis, aunt of the bride, and Miss Caroline Parker served from the table. Seventy friends called during the evening.
