Mary Scott McFadyen Wed To Mr. Plummer

Wedding vows were pledged Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at MacPherson Presbyterian Church by Miss Mary Scott McFadyen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fleetwood McFadyen Jr. of Fayetteville, and Fred Graham Plummer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Graham Plummer of Raeford. The Rev. Charles E. Kirkpatrick performed the double ring ceremony.

Miss Margaret Edens, organist, and Mrs. Neill A. McNeill, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal empire gown of antique satin made with Chantilly lace front and cap sleeves. The gown, created by the mother of the bridegroom, featured a high collar and A-line skirt which extended into a court sweep train. Her chapel-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and mums centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Richard L. Caldwell of Fayetteville, matron of honor, wore an empire gown of blue dotted Swiss, designed with high neckline, cap sleeves, and bodice accented with white lace entwined with blue satin ribbon. She wore a profile headpiece of white mums and carried a basket filled with babies breath, mums and white daisies with an accent of blue.

Wearing costumes and carrying flowers like those of the honor attendant, the bridesmaids were: Miss Barbara Fay Honeycutt of Wade, roommate of the bride; Miss Becky Plummer of Raeford, sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. John A. Plummer of Ft. Bragg, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mr. Plummer was his son's best man. Ushers were Captain John A. Plummer of Ft. Bagg and Stephen A. Plummer of Raeford, brothers of the bridegroom; John K. Hubbard III of Fayetteville and Carl Kornegay of Seven Springs.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents gave a reception in the church fellowship hall. Later the newlyweds left on a trip to the mountains of North Carolina. Upon their return, they will make their home in Goldsboro.

The bride is a graduate of Seventy-First High School and attended Worth Business School and Pembroke State University. The bridegroom, a graduate of Hoke High School, recently completed a tour of duty with the U.S. Air Force. He is presently attending Wayne Community College and is engaged in farming.

MRS. FRED GRAHAM PLUMMER

Reginald Barton in Fayetteville. Other hosts were Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott McFadyen and Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott McFadyen Jr.

The meal was served from a table covered with an olive green linen cloth and decorated with an arrangement of mixed flowers in a silver container. Guests were seated at auxiliary tables where green cloths and centerpiece of mixed flowers were used. The house was decorated throughout with summer flowers and greenery.

Upon arrival, corsages of roses were presented to Miss McFadyen, her mother and Mrs. Plummer.

Bridesmaids Luncheon

Miss McFadyen was honored on Friday noon at a bridesmaids luncheon in Maxton. Hostesses were Misses Mary and Ann McKinnon, Miss Johnnie Patterson of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Roger Cole of Stratford, Conn., Mrs. Rust Wooley of Wagram and Mrs. George Ford of Louisville.

The honoree was presented a corsage of pink carnations. Tables were centered with pink carnations and snapdragons.

Guests included the bridal attendants and the mothers of the bride couple.

Miss McFadyen received a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern. She presented gifts to her attendants.

Post-rehearsal Party

An after-rehearsal party for the Plummer - McFadyen wedding party and out of town guests was given Friday evening at Windway Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hubbard. Hosts with the Hubbards were Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKethan Sr.

Mixed summer flowers were used throughout the rooms. The refreshment table was spread with a white lace and linen cloth and centered with a candelabrum and mixed flowers. Mrs. Johnnie Hubbard served punch, assisted by Mrs. Jack Hubbard and Mrs. McKethan.

Sixty guests attended.
