Mr. And Mrs. Lawrence McLaughlin Honored On Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. McLaughlin, Sr. were honored on their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday November 14 with a Buffet dinner at their home on Route 1, Raeford. Hosts were their children.

A gold color scheme was used in the living room, dining room and den. The dining table was spread with a gold cloth, with a centerpiece of yellow Chrysanthemums, flanked by gold Candelabras with yellow candles. A three tiered wedding cake topped with gold wedding bells graced the decoration scene.

Guests called between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock. Assisting the hosts in serving were Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Ferguson, Mrs. Lenora Washington, Mrs. Lillie Dougherty and Mrs. Shirley Glinton. Gifts were received and displayed in the den by Misses Sharon and Sylvia Clanton and Lanette McLaughlin, granddaughters of the honorees.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John Galberth and Mrs. Bessie Currie of Southern Pines, Mr. John C. McLaughlin of Greensboro, Mrs. Etta McLaughlin and Rev.

GOLDEN WEDDING - Friends and members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. L.E. McLaughlin Sr. gathered Sunday, November 14, to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. The McLaughlins are pictured at their home with the Rev. H.E. Edwards who was at their wedding 50 years ago.

H.E. Edwards of Maxton, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Torain of Red Springs, Rev. and Mrs. J.O. Smith of Clover, S.C., Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gilchrist of Wagram, and Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Capel of Morven.

WITH OUR College Students

Freda Amanda Cobb of Lumber Bridge has been tapped for membership in the Order of the Valkyries, the highest women's honorary society at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Each year the Valkyries recognize and honor outstanding women students in scholarship, leadership and service.

Miss Cobb is a junior who worked as summer chairman of the Honor Court and is present Honor Court chairman, vice-president of East Cobb and was a member of the Women's Coordinating Board.

Twenty women students were inducted into the society.

Michael and Linda Nugent are members of the cast and crew for Pembroke State University's comedy "The Doctor In Spite Of Himself."

Michael, a sophomore majoring in history, is appearing as Lucas. Linda, a Raeford resident and a sophomore majoring in elementary education, is second assistant director. The play will be presented Nov. 18-20.

Jerry Stephen Cribbs, a member of the East Carolina University Chamber Singers, performed last weekend in Tallahassee, Fla.

The Singers, a group of 21 outstanding vocal and instrumental performers from ECU School of Music, sang Respighi's "Laud to the Nativity" for the Southern Division American Choral Director's Association convention. They were among the outstanding collegiate choruses selected by audition tape to perform at the annual event.

Cribbs, a tenor, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lacy Cribbs of Rt. 3, Raeford.

Invalid Dressing Made Easier by Few Changes

By JANICE R. CHRISTENSEN

Dressing an invalid or partial invalid can become relatively easy if you make a few simple adjustments in everyday clothing.

Mrs. Wiley Waters, a Pitt County homemaker, opened the back seams of her mother-in-law's dresses, gowns and slips and applied pressure tape to the opening.

"Aides at the nursing home say the newly-styled garments are easier to work with," notes Mrs. Evelyn Spangler, assistant home economics extension agent.

USE TRASH
No need to throw away trash. Recycle it into something useful, advises Mrs. Milton Ogburn, Smithfield, N.C.

Instead of disposing of old newspapers, this Hope-well Extension Homemakers Club member uses strips of newspaper as a flower mulch.

She also cuts up old aluminum pie plates and makes flower labels that can be attached to plants with twisted wire bread wrapper closures, says Mrs. Patricia Brown, home economics extension agent, Johnston County.

FIG CAPITAL
Bragging isn't bragging if you can prove it.

And Hyde County proved it could call itself the "fig capital of North Carolina" when county homemakers copped first, second and third places with their fig preserves at the State Fair.

They also took first and second honors with fig jam.
