

Carolina Telephone Pays Mrs. Wade Mortgage Supervisor

$24,272 In Local Taxes

Carolina Telephone's Hoke County taxes for 1971 amounted to $19,072, one of the largest assessments in the county.

Glenn Daughtridge, local manager, said that the tax payment covered ad valorem taxes on the company's property located within the county.

A check of county records indicated that Carolina Telephone ranks among the top taxpayers in the area it serves.

According to Daughtridge, municipal ad valorem taxes were also paid to Raeford. These taxes exceeded $5,200.

County and municipal 1971 taxes paid by the company in its 40-county operating area totaled over $3,162,500. Carolina Telephone's entire operating tax bill for 1971, including all state and federal taxes, is expected to come to more than $20,000,000.

Daughtridge pointed out that this did not include an estimated $6,800,000 in 10 percent federal excise taxes which were billed to telephone users by the company. These taxes are remitted to the federal government upon collection.

Mrs. Jean Wade of the installment loan department of Southern National Bank in Raeford recently has been designated mortgage loan supervisor. Mrs. Wade recently completed an extensive five-day training course in the mortgage loan department at the home office of Southern National in Lumberton. During the training period, Mrs. Wade was familiarized with all the mortgage lending activities of Southern National Bank.

Although Southern National has handled FHA, VA and FHA-235 loans for quite some time, the bank has just recently begun handling the conventional type mortgage loans. This recent change in bank service has dictated an extensive retraining program among its mortgage loan officers.

With the training of Mrs. Wade and the additional mortgage services now being offered by Southern National Bank, the bank will be better able to provide all types of mortgage financing. Southern National is now able to handle

This Is The Law

Allen on April 15 orally agreed to sell his horse to Baxter on May 15 for $300. The horse is worth on the market $500. On May 1 Baxter orally sold to Collins for $50 his rights under the contract. Collins tendered $300 to Allen on May 15, but Allen refused to deliver the horse to him. Allen contended that he had made no contract with Collins, that his contract was with Baxter, and that he did not want anyone other than Baxter to own his horse. May Collins recover from Allen for breach of contract?

Yes. Allen cannot refuse to deliver the horse to Collins, upon tender of the agreed purchase price, on the ground that he has entered into no contractual relation with Collins. It should make no difference to him as to who pays the $300 and gets the horse.

Allen will not be permitted to say that he would not have sold this horse had he known anyone other than Baxter was to become the horse's owner. If Baxter can dispose of the horse to anyone he chooses immediately after himself performing the contract, there is no serious objection to his selling or giving to Collins this right prior to the performance of the contract.

An assignment of the contract has occurred. An assignment takes place when a party transfers all of his rights or interests in a contract to one who is not a party to the original undertaking. The party making the assignment is known as the "assignor"; the one to whom the right is transferred is called the "assignee."

The assignee steps into the shoes of the assignor and acquires all of the rights and privileges of the latter. The assignee can enforce the contract against the remaining original party to the contract.

how much cake should there be in a fruit cake?

Not much!

In fact, we think just enough to hold the fruit and nuts in place.

You see, our Jane Parker Fruit Cake is over 2/3 fruit and nuts.

Every cake is just bursting with imported and domestic cherries, pineapple from the Far East, citron from the Caribbean, sun-drenched raisins from California and meaty pecans from the South.

AND ONE OTHER THING YOU SHOULD KNOW

The 4-lb. cake costs only $4.59.

That's dollars less than you might expect to pay for such a fine fruit cake.

Is it any wonder Jane Parker Fruit Cake is America's most popular Fruit Cake?

Is it any wonder it's become such a favorite gift item?

Is Jane Parker Fruit Cake a good reason for shopping A&P?

It's one of many.
