

Youths Tried For Thefts At Seven Raeford Stores

Three youths charged with the recent breakins at downtown stores were tried in district court Friday.

The boys, all students at Hoke High, were allowed to plead guilty to misdemeanor charges of breaking, entering and larceny. They were originally charged with a total of 19 felony counts.

In stressing the seriousness of the charges, Judge Joseph Dupree told the boys that if they had been found guilty of all the original charges they would have lost their citizenship and if they had received the maximum sentence for each charge, they would have been in prison for the rest of their lives.

Sylvester Adams, Willie Edward Buie, Jr. and Wilbert

Fairley were sentenced to a total of six years in prison. The sentences were suspended for 3 1/2 years and they were placed on probation for 3 1/2 years. In addition, the state took a not pros with leave on several of the felony charges, with the explanation that these could be re-opened in the future if such action seemed advisable.

Adams and Fairley were ordered to pay $857.60 to seven merchants as restitution for damages in the thefts. They were ordered to pay $500 of the money before being released from jail. Buie was ordered to pay $603.64 for damages in five of the breakins and the three were all charged with court costs. Buie posted a $1,000 compliance bond.

The fines and court costs, which with jail fees and other charges amount to more than $1,000 for some of the boys, are to be paid under the supervision of the probation officer.
