Allgood - Guy Vows Spoken In Fayetteville

MacPherson Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville was the setting May 28 for the wedding of Miss Margaret Ann Guy and Charles Richard Allgood. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neill Pitman Guy and Mr. Allgood is the son of Mrs. Paul Braddy Allgood of Fayetteville, and the late Mr. Allgood.

The Rev. Charles Kirkpatrick, pastor of the church and the Rev. Roscoe C. Hauser, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Larry W. Parsons, soloist, Donald Snelgrove, organist, and Miss Susan Drake, violinist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire organza gown with organza appliques on the bodice and Camelot sleeves. She wore a bridal hat of peacock blue with floral adornment and floor length organza streamers. She carried a basket of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids, who wore dresses like the honor attendant's, were: Mrs. Samuel P. Guy, sister-in-law of the bride, in peacock blue; Miss Jerri J. Griffin, double-first cousin of the bride, in turquoise, both of Fayetteville; Miss Patricia Curran of Washington, D.C., in powder blue; Miss Beverly Nye of Red Springs, in orchid, and Miss Gwen Peed of Fayetteville, in mint green. They wore picture hats to match their rainbow colored dresses and each carried a basket of spring flowers.

Children in the wedding

Mrs. Charles Richard Allgood

were Lynne Ross, Blair Daughtridge and Wayne Parsons.

Paul B. Allgood Jr. of Falls Church, Va., attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Duncan B. McFadyen III, Michael McNeill, both of Raeford, Howard S. Allgood Jr., Fayetteville, all first cousins of the bridegroom, Samuel Bo Guy, brother of the bride, and Larry W. Parsons, her brother-in-law, both of Fayetteville.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall at the church, immediately following the ceremony. Later the couple left for a wedding trip and upon their return will be at home in Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Seventy-First High School and Pembroke State University. She is employed with Mrs. Guy's Kindergarten. Her husband is a graduate of Fayetteville Senior High School and of Pembroke State University.
