

Rockfish News

MRS. A. A. McINNIS

Homecoming at Tabernacle Church will be this coming Sunday, October 15.

There will be no preaching service at Parker Church next Sunday because of the homecoming at Sandy Grove Methodist Church.

The Rev. Fred Dinkins preached at Galatia Church Sunday a.m.

The Rev. Carl Strickland pastor of Tabernacle Church says, "The Rev. Scott Turner of Hamlet, a former pastor will bring the Homecoming message at Tabernacle Church Sunday and all the friends of this church are invited."

Sorry there were so many mistakes in last week's Rockfish news and they were just mistakes, no one was to blame. In the Grange news Mrs. Marshall Newton was "Mrs. Marshall." Mrs. Tracy Everett's great-grandson William Henry Breeden III was "Breeden III." Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hughes of Asheboro found no one at home when they came to visit relatives in Rockfish and that came out "found one" and this last was funny for it caused some one to ask "Which one did they find?" And Mrs. Minnie Biggs was with the Family Care Home group where Mrs. Shaw's name appeared. But these were all just natural mistakes and no one was offended. But Mrs. Everett will be glad if her great-grandson William Henry Breeden III, of Fayetteville comes out right this week. The writer can be credited with some of the mistakes and the paper can have some of them. Nothing like "Keeping the records straight" if you can.

Mrs. Wright Parker of Laurinburg spent last Saturday with her sister, Mrs. George Dees and Mr. Dees. And Mrs. Dees says they had a happy time shelling green peas to freeze.

Mrs. Tracy Everett's daughter Mrs. C. W. Boone of Fayetteville visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sunday and took her mother to visit her sisters Mrs. E. L. Glass and Mrs. Albert Parham of Hamlet and Mrs. Janie Galdston also of Hamlet.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoke McPhail and Mrs. John Rackley of Fayetteville came and stayed with Mr. Everett, while Mrs. Everett and her daughter were gone to Hamlet.

Miss Mary Sessoms spent a few days the first of this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chason and son Larry. Larry Chason was taken to the doctor Monday with a sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Overton and Mr. and Mrs. James Miller spent the weekend at Holden Beach. Miss Mary Priest kept the Overton children, Joy and Mike, while they were away at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cook Williams of Wade came Saturday to do some work in the Philippi Church cemetery, expecting to be back for the Homecoming but they did not come. While here Saturday they visited Miss Mary Priest and her brothers Walter and Francis Priest.

Mrs. E. B. Newton, who was a patient at Highsmith - Rainey Memorial Hospital came home last Friday. Mrs. Harold Monroe who was a patient at Cape Fear Valley Hospital came home last Saturday. Both were doing well at last account.

The community extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bundy in the death of his sister, Mrs. Bessie Faulkner of Boone Trail, Fayetteville, who passed away last Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bundy went on a trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina the past weekend.

Mrs. George Monroe, Mrs. Arbrely Gaddis and her mother Mrs. Fredis Hudson attended a concert by Martha Swan Wood, soprano, at Lutaw Heights Baptist Church, Fayetteville, last Sunday night.

Mrs. Alma Moseley and Mrs. Floyd Monroe visited Mrs. David Koonce at Whispering Pines last Friday and found her getting along very well.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Brock, and Mr. and Mrs. James Culp returned home Sunday after spending last week at Carolina Beach.

Mrs. A. W. Wood and her grandchildren, Becky and Donald Wood Jr. spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wood and daughter, Deborah of Thomasville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bundy and children Carl and Dayne visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cornell of Culepper, Va., the past weekend and were about to be weather-bound up there for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bundy and son, Gerald Jr. are moving in with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bundy.

Mrs. L. D. Long was admitted to Highsmith - Rainey Memorial Hospital last Wednesday. Mrs. Long was improving at last account from her mother, Mrs. N. J. Ritter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Capps and daughter Teresa and Mrs. W. B. Barefoot spent the weekend at Carolina Beach. As soon as they got away, a Mr. Schell and son Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Barefoot and children of Petersburg, Va., came and spent the weekend with Mr. Barefoot and were gone before Mrs. Barefoot got home.

Among those from Tabernacle Church who attended the Homecoming at Philippi Church Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Long, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bundy and children of Lafayette Village were also present.

Mrs. Vamik Bombatepe and sons Halis and John of Wilson and her guest from Turkey, Mrs. Lutfiye Atabay spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lovette and Mrs. Mary Shewbridge and Mrs. Shewbridge went home with them to spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lancaster and son Brian spent the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lancaster and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Smith McInnis and her grandmother, Mrs. Jim Maxwell.

Mrs. K. P. Ritter, and Mrs. Douglas Monroe chairmen, met at their homes Monday night.

Homecoming Last Sunday was a beautiful day for the Homecoming at Philippi Church. There was a large crowd in attendance. The Rev. John Rupp, pastor of Raeford Presbyterian Church was the speaker. Welcome was by Philip Newton and the history of the church and memorial was by Smith McInnis. Special music was rendered by the Adult Choir and The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed during the morning worship program in the sanctuary. A bountiful picnic dinner was served from a long table on the church lawn. It was a joyful occasion and many of those who attended came back on Sunday night for the first of the revival services being held there the first four nights of this week.

Birthday Mrs. Floyd Monroe and her grandson Joe Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. James McKeithan, Mr. and Mrs. Max Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ray and children attended a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Pinehurst last Sunday given in honor of Mrs. Smith's birthday. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Little and children, Mrs. William Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klingenschmidt and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Monroe. Mrs. Smith received many nice gifts and enjoyed seeing all of these her near relatives and may she have many more happy birthdays.

Birthday There was a family reunion and birthday celebration all in one, when all of Mrs. Marshall Newton's sisters and brothers gathered at her home last Sunday to celebrate her sister, Miss Lessie Martin's birthday. Those present were Miss Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rozier of St. Pauls, Braxton Martin of Tar Heel, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Martin of Wilmington, Mrs. Annie B. Martin of Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Furman Martin, Mrs. Annie Hollingsworth and J. B. Martin of Fayetteville. It was a joyful occasion for all with a birthday dinner, birthday cake and all the good things that go with birthdays and reunions. Miss Martin received many nice gifts and all her friends and relatives wish for her many more happy birthdays.

Rockfish Youth Group Saturday, Oct. 7, the Rockfish Youth Group Unlimited, had a meeting, and it was called to order by Ann Melton, the president. She announced that it was our first official meeting. The roll was called. Then Ann presented the lesson which was on "Love." We ended with a prayer and had refreshments.

McNeill Makes Zone Contest

David McNeill, 12-year-old class, placed first with 263.5 in the district Punt, Pass and Kick competition in Lumberton Saturday. McNeill, the only first place from Hoke County, will go to the zone competition in Charlotte on Saturday.

Others from Hoke County participating in the district competition were Keith Wilkes, Stephen Knox, Mike Tuttle, and James McNeill.

Rescue Squad Purchases Van

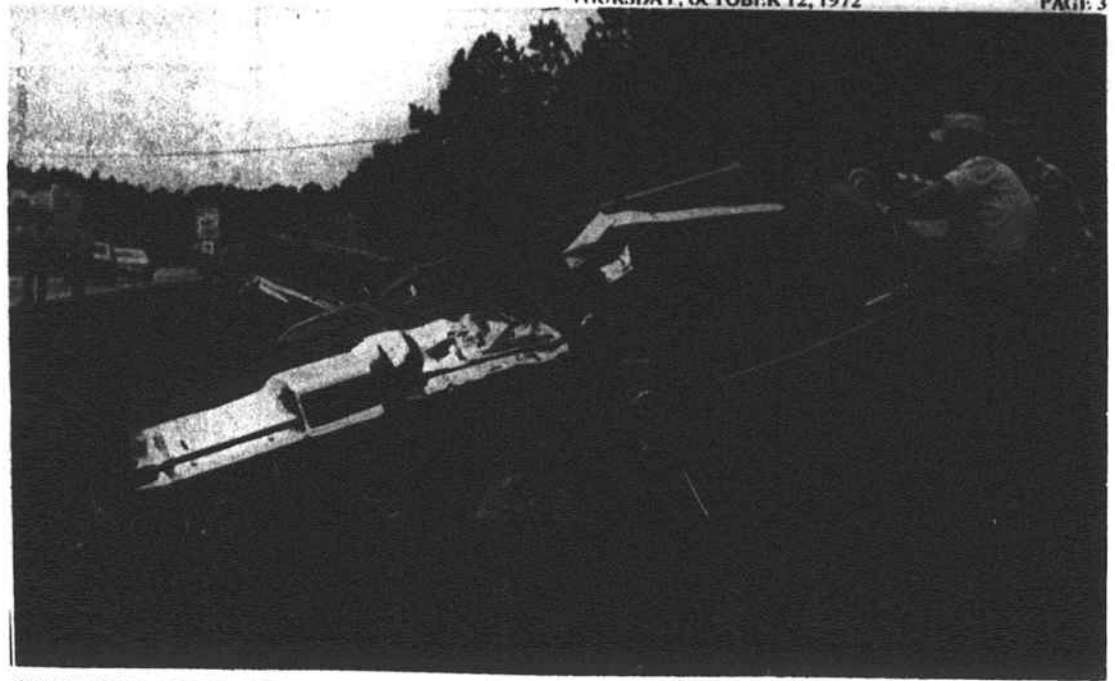

Hoke County Rescue Squad, Inc. accepted the low bid on a 1973 3/4-ton Van Truck at its business meeting Oct. 4.

The two bids submitted on the Van replacing a 1969 station wagon were from Raeford Auto Company, $3,321.86 and Hoke Auto Company $3,235.37.

Specifications were similar to the present 1971 van now in operation as an equipment truck except for glass all around. The same optional heavy duty equipment applied.

This purchase continues a squad policy of replacing a vehicle every two years which means no squad emergency vehicle will be more than four years old. A 100 per cent loan will be on the vehicle until the 1969 station wagon is sold by sealed bid after delivery of the 1973 van.

Jim Wade, Vice commander (equipment), says, "Individuals interested in supporting this large undertaking, or any of the rescue squad projects, may contact one of our officers. We plan our equipment purchases to be prepared for community emergencies. All checks are tax deductible and should be made to Hoke County Rescue Squad, Inc., Box 337, Raeford."

OVERTURNED CAR TRAPS TWO - Jamie MacKay, 3, and his sister Annie MacKay, 16, both of Elm City, were trapped when the car in which they were riding overturned following a three-car accident on U.S. 401 North on Oct. 4. Seven persons including two Raeford men were injured in the accident.

TV or not TV
The answer is up to you.

North Carolinians have a real choice for the U.S. Senate this year.

One candidate is the ultra-liberal. He voted four times in Congress to support George McGovern's out and run policy in Vietnam. He voted year after year for the big spending bills that cause higher taxes and more inflation. He was described by a liberal syndicated columnist as an ideological terms undoubtedly close to McGovern.

The other candidate is Jesse Helms. Jesse Helms stands behind President Nixon's efforts to end the Vietnam war honorably and humanely - and bring home our Prisoners of War.

Jesse Helms has a long record of speaking out against the wasteful spending schemes of the bureaucrats and social engineers in Washington.

Jesse Helms can win on Nov. 7. He will beat the ultra-liberal. But he needs your help to do it. Only through television can Jesse Helms get his message to all the people of North Carolina.

Tom Ellis, Helms For Senate Campaign Committee

Jesse Helms does not possess the large out-of-state financial resources of his opponent.

He must rely on you. Your dollars sent in now can put Jesse over the top on Nov. 7.

Send your contributions now to the Helms for Senate Campaign.

Let's have a Senator we can be proud of.

Yes, I want to help Jesse Helms get his message on TV. I'm enclosing my contribution of $1.00 $5.00 $10.00 or $15.00.

Please send the contribution to: Campaign Committee, Jesse Helms for Senate, P.O. Box 125, Astor Station, Boston, Massachusetts 02123.
