Library Fund Boosters

Book Bridge Club members made a contribution to the Hoke County Library Building fund at their October meeting. Instead of having the usual exchange of gifts at Christmas, each member donated $10.00 to the library fund. Members are, front row - Mrs. Younger Snead, Mrs. Neill A. McDonald, Mrs. C.L. Thomas and Mrs. R.A. Matheson; second row - Mrs. Marcus Smith, Mrs. Tommie Upchurch, Mrs. J. Lawrence McNeill, Mrs. H.L. Gatlin Jr., Mrs. Neill L. McFadyen and Mrs. Ralph Barnhart.

Mesdames Snead, Hill And Snead Jr. Entertain

Mrs. Mabel V. Hill, Mrs. Younger Snead and Mrs. Younger Snead Jr. were hostesses for a series of parties during the past week. They entertained at the home of Mrs. John W. Walker with a luncheon last Tuesday, a dinner party on Friday and a luncheon Tuesday of this week.

Pink and white roses, camellias and chrysanthemums were used throughout the house. The dining room table was covered with a white linen and lace cloth over pink and two small tables in the den were spread with white linen. Pink and white cards marked places for 16 guests.

For the Tuesday luncheon, yellow and white chrysanthemums and pompons decorated the tables and entrance hall, and the dining table was covered with white over yellow. Small tables were centered with bouquets of yellow and white mums.

MRS. LEONARD J. BENSON

Benson - Perley Vows Spoken In Bragg Chapel

Miss Deborah Cheryl Perley became the bride of Leonard Jay Benson at five o'clock, Saturday, October 27, in the Main Post Chapel at Ft. Bragg. The Rev. Harold Bridges officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Allen H. Perley and the late Mr. Perley of Fayetteville, formerly of Raeford. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Benson of Fayetteville.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Martha Blalock of Fayetteville and John Davis of Raeford.

The bride's matron of honor was Mrs. Pat Freeman; bridesmaids were Mrs. Margaret Bradford, Mrs. Theresa Roth, Miss Janet Benson, Miss Mona Lewis, Miss Pat Long, and Miss Linda Smith. Flower girl was Heidi Wall and ring bearer was David H. Freeman.

The bride, given in marriage by the brother - in - law, David N. Freeman, wore a formal white gown of mira-mist over angelskin and sculptured Venice lace styled with a high waisted bodice, picture neckline, Camelot sleeves, and full skirt which extended into a chapel train. Her headwear was a Camelot cap of matching lace and held a chapel length veil of illusion trimmed in Venice lace.

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were Mike Moore, Neil Packer, Neil Monroe, Garland Roth, Gary Benson, and Mark Bradford.

Following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained with a reception at the Hodge Room of the Main Post Officers Club.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach the couple will be at home on Plantation Drive in Fayetteville.

Weekly Health Tip
By Mike Wood

Winter itch is a condition causing discomfort most often to the elderly. It seems related to the tendency for people in our society to be excessively clean. By soaping away the natural oil of the skin, it leaves the skin dry and free to chafe and itch. An oil is available from your druggist which will help to relieve winter itch. Some doctors advise using soap only to cleanse hands and face.
