

Court Decides Cases

Thomas Warren Tate, Rt. 1, was convicted of allowing an unlicensed person without financial responsibility to drive a vehicle owned by him. He received six months, suspended two years upon condition he violate no motor laws for two years and pay $50 restitution and costs.

Connie Beatrice Southerland, Rt. 3, was convicted of driving without a license, and was assessed costs.

John Lee Humphrey, Laurinburg, was convicted of improper passing. He was assessed $10 fine and costs.

Earl Howard Pate, III, Pembroke, was convicted of speeding and received 30 days, suspended upon payment of $15 fine and costs.

Darrell Craig Stone, 514 E. 6th Ave., was convicted of speeding and assessed costs.

Robert Gay, Gadsden, S.C., was convicted of speeding. Judgment was suspended upon payment of costs.

Valentino Adolf Johnson, Fayetteville, was convicted of speeding. Prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of costs.

Roger Massey, Raeford, was convicted of affray. He received six months, suspended three years upon condition he violate no laws and pay $100 fine and costs.

Charles McKinley, Raeford, convicted of affray, received six months, suspended three year upon condition he violate no laws and pay $100 fine and costs. He was originally charged with assault with a deadly weapon, but the court ordered action so abated in that case and judgment entered in the affray case.

Hattie McMillian, Raeford, was convicted of shoplifting. She received six months suspended two years and was placed on probation two years with the condition she report to the sheriff for confinement from 6 p.m. Friday to 6 p.m. Sunday for five weekends and pay costs.

Larry A. Morrissey, Rt. 2, convicted of non-support, received six months, suspended three years on condition he pay $15 weekly support and costs.

Thaddeus Ezzell Jones, McCain, was called on charges of public intoxication and failed to appear. The court ordered his $30 bail bond forfeited with judgment final.

The state took nol pros on cases charging John D. Wilkes Jr., Green Street, with simple assault; Drenna Jean Oxendine, Pembroke, with fornication and adultery; and Garry Andrew Mabry, Fayetteville, driving without due caution and in a dangerous manner and speeding.

HOSTETLER HOME - Entry hall of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hostetler's home is prepared for the holiday season with red mistletoe garland anchored with large red velvet bows on banister and pineapple topped newel post. Doorway is outlined with garland and table supports arrangement of greens, pine cones and red apples. The home at 305 W. Elwood Ave. is included in December 19 Extension Homemakers' Library Benefit Tour (N-J Photo)

College News

BOONE - Two Raeford students are among Appalachian State University's senior education majors participating in the 12-week student teaching program this winter.

Deborah Sharon Inman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey F. Inman, is teaching third grade and Mary Nell Harward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Harward, is teaching special education at Sedge Garden Elementary School, Kernersville.

Miss Cynthia McNeill has been named to the first quarter Honor Roll at East Carolina University, Greenville

Postmaster Job Vacant In Rex

Rex, N.C. A postmaster vacancy exists at the Rex, N.C., fourth-class Post Office, Regional Postmaster General Carl C. Ulsaker announced.

Sectional Center Manager G.W. Hoge at Fayetteville Post Office is accepting applications for this position.

Hoge said applications will be accepted to December 17 and forms may be obtained at the Rex Post Office. Starting salary is $5,816 a year. No written test is required.

Hoge said applicants must reside in the Rex postal area and live within a reasonable distance from the post office to adequately discharge responsibilities of the office

OPEN EVERY NIGHT
(Except Sunday)

Till 8:30
Until Christmas
closed at 6 P.M. on Sat.

Joe Sugar's of Raeford

MACKS

Edenborough Shopping Center

OPEN EVERY SUNDAY

1 P.M. till 6 P.M.

Every Night till 9:00 P.M.

COLLINS

Department Store of Raeford, N.C.

LAST 3 DAYS

Going Out Of Business

RIDICULOUSLY LOW PRICES

Everything

Greater

Than

50%

Everything Must Go By

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15

SHOP 9 til 6 THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

