Ford LTD: A well-made car can give you surprising gas mileage.

Independent test results reveal 18.8 mpg.

Professional Driver #1	20.3
Professional Driver #2	17.4
Housewife #1	20.2
Housewife #2	16.3
Hugh Downs	19.7

On December 28, 1973, five production line Ford LTD 4-door pillared hardtops equipped with 351 CID V-8 engines were driven from Phoenix to Los Angeles. The Fords were driven by three non-professional and two professional drivers at speeds not exceeding 50 mph.

The 5-car gas mileage average: 18.8 mpg. One experienced economy driver averaged 20.3 mpg, and a housewife from Scottsdale, Arizona, averaged 20.2 mpg.

Of course, mileage depends on maintenance, driving habits, total weight, road and driving conditions... and you may not get the same results.

Yet, if you followed the driving tips published in The Closer You Look Fuel Economy Book (free at your Ford Dealer's), you'd find the six-passenger Ford LTD rides with noteworthy efficiency. Even under city driving conditions.

A funny thing about size—and luxury. When you do your new car "homework," you may notice that many luxury automobiles are longer and heavier than the Ford LTD. Yet when you open the doors, and the trunk, the difference disappears. There is ample trunk space and six-passenger roominess inside the Ford. The luxurious appointment—like the LTD Brougham Luxury Group option which features Crushed Velour cloth split bench seats, passenger seat recliner, 25 oz. cupholder, carpeted luggage compartment and more—speak for themselves... beautifully. The point is, you don't need a bigger car outside to have the comforts inside.

The six-passenger car—still in tune with the times. Ford thinks a lot of people need and want a solid, well-made car that can carry six people comfortably. Also, in these times, it's good to know that the Ford LTD uses regular gas. And comes equipped with standard steel-belted radial ply tires—they deliver thousands of extra miles over non-radials. Driven sensibly, the Ford LTD offers real economy and convenience on today's roads. You can pay more for six-passenger luxury. But look close, and you'll see that there isn't much more luxury to be had at any price, than we offer in the Quiet Ford LTD.
