College Talent Auditions Held

RALEIGH, N.C. — Auditioning March 16 as a finalist in the Meredith College Talent Scholarship competition was Miss Julia Ann Kicklighter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Kicklighter of Raeford.

A prospective music major at Meredith, Miss Kicklighter, a senior at Hoke County High School, was invited to participate in the scholarship program which recognizes excellence and ability in music.

Miss Kicklighter was chosen on the basis of an initial competitive audition. She and eight other finalists returned to Meredith for a second audition and interview with the Meredith music faculty March 16. Miss Kicklighter's music speciality is Piano.

A Music Talent Scholarship at Meredith ranges from $100 to $1000 per year, depending on the financial need of the recipient. Winners will be notified of their selection by April 1.
