By Mrs. A. A. McInnis

The Bible Study group of Tabernacle Church met Monday a.m. with Mrs. Bill Gibson at her home. The Mission in Action group met Monday night with Mrs. Louise Watson hostess at her home.

Guest speaker for the morning worship service at Parker Church next Sunday at 9:45 a.m. will be school superintendent Raz Autry of Raeford. The pastor of Parker Church will be graduating from Duke University Sunday, May 12.

Mrs. Floyd Monroe and Mrs. Marshall Newton attended the morning worship service at the Baptist Church in Raeford Sunday with the Senior Citizens of Raeford and Hoke County.

The Rev. William Beasley preached at Pittman Grove Church Sunday morning. The WMU of Pittman Grove Church met at the church Monday night.

Revival services are in progress at Lake Rim Mission this week at 7:30 each night. Guest minister is the Rev. Bill Pruitt.

Three new members were received at Pittman Grove Church Sunday; one by letter and two on profession of faith.

Mr. Edgar Pittman, who was a patient at Cape Fear Valley Hospital all last week, had lung surgery there Monday and he was doing fine at last account.

Richard Gaddis, student at Pembroke University, completed his years work there this week and came home Thursday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Cyrus Moore of Greensboro visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tillman and sons, Harold and David, last Sunday and took David home with them to spend the week.

Mrs. Will Wood of Fayetteville is spending this week with her sisters, Miss Annie Ray and Mrs. Clara Everett.

Alfred Berry and Riley Willis left Tuesday, a.m., for Carolina Beach to go fishing. How long they will stay depends on the fish.

Mrs. Daniel Berry and children Melissa and Janie and her father, Riley Willis, visited her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Richard Workman and daughter, Rene, of Fayetteville Sunday.

Guests of Mrs. Ethel D. Gibson Monday and Monday night were Mrs. Virginia Bounds of Red Springs, Mrs. Harry Fisher and daughter, Rhoda, of Lois. Mrs. Fisher spent the night with Mrs. Gibson and her daughter Rhoda spent Monday night with Miss Sarah McCallum of Fayetteville.

Mrs. Gibson visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Schell of Lumber Bridge Sunday and her guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Freeman, Jr., of Fayetteville and Mrs. Sid Sumner of Lumber Bridge.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Attaway and sons, Robert and James, were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Chrisman of Raleigh, cousins of Mrs. James Attaway, and Mrs. Louise Chrisman of Kipling.

Mrs. Attaway who was hurt in an automobile wreck near Fort Bragg several weeks ago, got home from Womack Army Hospital last Thursday. She is doing as well as can be expected after such a wreck. She is taking it patiently, although some of the time she has not been able to talk because of a facial injury, and it has been painful, too. But, her mother, Mrs. R. W. Posey, has been with her since she came home and that has helped a lot.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bundy, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bundy and children, Carl and Dayne, spent the past weekend at Surf City Beach.

John Ray Butler of California, a cousin of Mrs. James Attaway, called Saturday to talk with Mrs. Attaway and it was helpful to her to know that people far away cared about her enough to call.

Miss Mary Sessoms came Saturday and is spending a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Chason and Larry.

Sorry Misses Allie and Katie Blacks names were left out of the list of persons who attended funeral services for Henry J. Smith at Montpelier Church last week, and interment at Spring Hill Cemetery. The writer's mistake. Their presence was appreciated very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Long of Sneads Ferry came Saturday and spent Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night with his sister, Mrs. Louise Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Long visited Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Long Sunday p.m. and were their supper guests Monday night.

Mrs. Floyd Monroe's sister, Mrs. John Baker, who was a patient at Duke Hospital for many weeks, came to Moore Memorial Hospital last week and went home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Bundy had as their Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bundy and daughter, Jenine, of Lafayette Village.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Monroe Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Paul McDonald and sons, Steve and Derrick of Lumberton, Mrs. Minor McGougan, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry McGougan of St. Pauls.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Monroe visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Monroe, and son, Bryan, of McCain, Sunday and their son, Joe Allen Monroe of Southern Pines, and Mrs. John Baker and Mrs. Myrtle Layton at Moore Memorial Hospital Pinehurst Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas McColl says they have talked to Mrs. S. N. McColl, who has spent the winter with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Terry at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Mrs. McColl seems to be doing well and plans to come by plane to Raleigh May 18. Mr.

and Mrs. Thomas McColl will meet her in Raleigh, and she will be at home once more.

On their recent camping trip to Disney World in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Raymonds spent from Friday to Saturday of the next week. They camped and attended church services near Disney World. They toured Orlando and went to St. Augustine and Sea World. They saw many interesting things on the way there and back and enjoyed it all.

County Commissioner T. C. Jones visited Ernest Davis of Arabia at Moore Memorial Hospital Sunday. He also stopped by to see county commissioner J. A. Webb at his home. Mr. Webb had just returned from Moore Memorial Hospital and is still weak from his recent illness. Mr. Jones also visited his niece, Mrs. James Jones, who had minor surgery on one of her hands. She was doing fine and about ready to come home.

Mrs. Bessie Brock of Fayetteville spent last Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Hobson and Miss Delia Blue. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Black are now living near Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Hobson. Mrs. Black is Mrs. Hobson's half sister. C. M. Chason, who works at Fort Bragg, was at home Monday with a throat infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McCraney visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Y. A. Lee of Fayetteville, Saturday. Her brother, Y. A. Lee, was at home for the day from the Sanatorium at McCain, where he has been a patient for a week or more. He was doing very well.

Mrs. Ronald Sillman and daughters of Ramseur were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Smith of Puppy Creek the past weekend and attended services at Parker Church with them Sunday. They also visited other relatives.

F.C.H.

Mrs. Jesse Lee reports from the Rockfish Family Care Home that they have a new resident in the home, Miss Mary Ray of Route No. 3, Fayetteville. Mrs. Ella Baxley who was a patient at Southeastern General Hospital, Lumberton, last week, came home Monday. Mrs. Lee's sister, Mrs. Edna K. Daniels is out of the hospital and staying with Mrs. Lee's daughter, Mrs. Connie Bunnell and family. Her mother who was hospitalized at New Bern is also at home. Mr. and Mrs. Lee and her sister, Mrs. Daniels, attended a singing at Whispering Pines Church Sunday night. All the residents are well.

Mrs. Archie Clark, Jack Lunsford, Mrs. Marshall Newton and Mrs. Floyd Monroe attended the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Faircloth at the Pokesbury Methodist Church at Stedman, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McPherson and children, Davis and Elizabeth, of Yanceyville, came Friday and stayed until Sunday p.m. with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Parker and other relatives. While here they attended services at Galatia Sunday a.m. and visited Misses Allie and Katie Black, Mr. and Mrs. Davis Parker and children, Karen and Kirkland, Maj. and Mrs. D. B. Parker and children, Teresa Duncan and Joni.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Plummer were much pleased to hear the past week that their daughter, Becky Plummer, a student at Wayne Community College, Goldsboro, had made the honor roll for the last quarter. Becky is in the advanced degree nursing program. Congratulations to Becky and her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith McInnis visited Mr. and Mrs. David Lancaster and children, Brian and Jennifer, of Raleigh, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Freeman of Raleigh and his mother, Mrs. A. J. Freeman of Raeford, visited Mr. and Mrs. Smith McInnis and Mrs. Jim Maxwell after they got home from church Sunday a.m. and before they got off to Raleigh. Mrs. Maxwell went to spend the afternoon with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Max Ray of Puppy Creek. Then, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman went home with his mother to be her dinner guests.

Frank Sojka of Fayetteville was a dinner guest of his father-in-law, Alfred Berry, and his brother-in-law, Oscar G. Berry, Sunday.

Mrs. Dan McInnis who entered Moore Memorial Hospital Sunday for minor surgery Monday came home Tuesday.

Mrs. Floyd Monroe, Mrs. M. D. Gillis and Mrs. Malcolm Gillis went on a business trip to Raleigh Monday.

Comment

Many of us have always heard that "honesty is the best policy," but have we realized how much good it does to really be honest. If we are honest, we may not be deceived. If we are dishonest we surely will.

Mrs. Ethel D. Gibson's brother, J. C. Deaton of Blowing Rock spent the weekend with her.

Mrs. M. S. Joy and Ricky, Kenneth Barnes and Gayle Dees, went to Carolina Beach and spent Saturday night. They attended Sunday school at the Baptist Church there Sunday a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Berry and her father Riley Willis and his father Alfred Berry and the children Melissa and Janie went to Carolina Beach last Tuesday. They didn't have much luck fishing.
