Farewell Courtesies Shown Mrs. Pope

Several parties were given recently as farewell honors for Mrs. Graham Pope who will leave Raeford in early June to make her home in Cleveland, Tenn.

Wednesday, May 8, Mrs. George King entertained with a coffee at her home from 10 until noon.

Upon her arrival, Mrs. Pope was presented a corsage of white chrysanthemums by her hostess.

Guests were invited into the dining room where the table was spread with a linen and lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of mixed yellow and white spring flowers. Mrs. Charles Hostetter poured coffee. Mrs. Robert G. Townsend and Mrs. John Biddix also assisted in serving assorted party foods.

Mrs. Pope received a gift of pewter from the hostess.

Approximately 30 guests called during the appointed hours.

Mrs. Carroll Wilburn, Mrs. David Scott Currie and Mrs. Jesse Jones were hostesses for a luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. John W. Walker.

Roses and mixed flowers were used on the dining room table and two smaller tables where places were laid for 16 guests.

The hostesses remembered Mrs. Pope with a gift of crystal.

Mrs. J.B. McLeod, Mrs. C.R. Clark and Mrs. Benny McLeod gave a buffet luncheon Saturday at the McLeod pond.

Yellow daisies and ivy were used in arrangements throughout the house and on three small luncheon tables.

Mrs. Pope was presented a farewell gift by the hostesses.

Wednesday at 12:30, Mrs. Carson Davis Jr. and Mrs. Ed Hart entertained with an informal luncheon at the Davis home on Fulton St. Their gift to Mrs. Pope was a ceramic jardiniere.

Roses and gypsophila centered the dining room table where places were marked for eight guests.

Guests with Mrs. Pope included Mrs. George King, Mrs. Charles Hostetter, Mrs. Robert Townsend, Mrs. Thomas Stator and Mrs. Jerry Goza.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris of Cincinnati, Ohio, announce the birth of a son, Jeffrey Nathan, on May 20. Mr. Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Jeff Harris.

Junior Women's Club Director To Speak Here

Young women with an interest in their community and civic projects are being sought by a group of local young women who are investigating the organization of a Junior Woman's Club.

The Junior Woman's Clubs Inc. is a part of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, an international organization. Membership is limited to women 19 to 35 years of age. Objectives are service through national, state and local projects.

Projects that Junior Clubs throughout the county support are the National Kidney Foundation and Women Advocates for the Mentally Retarded. Special interests for North Carolina Juniors are the Children's Home Society and Volunteers in Public Schools.

Women in Hoke County who are interested and would like to learn more about the organization can attend an orientation meeting on June 7, at the Hoke Civic Center. There will be a Coke party at 9:45 a.m. for a get-acquainted hour. At 10:30 Mrs. Gerald Hayes of Dunn, Junior Director of N.C. Women's Clubs for District 9, will speak to the group about organization and projects as they apply to local clubs.

Registration for the morning is not required but interested persons with questions may contact Mrs. Ron Baxley, 875-2023, Mrs. Mike Wood, 875-3176, or Mrs. Hank Richards, 875-3067.
