Tabernacle Church this week. It got off to a fine start Monday a.m., with an enrollment of 79.

The pastor of Pittman Grove Church and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. William Beasley, joined the church there by letter Sunday.

The congregation of Pittman Grove Church gave their pastor and his wife an old fashioned pounding last Sunday night after prayer meeting, after he had expressed thanks for both of them. Refreshments were served.

The U.M.W. of Parker Church met Tuesday a.m. with Mrs. Jesse Black at her home.

The Rev. and Mrs. Carl Strickland left on Thursday of last week for Dallas, Texas, to attend the Southern Baptist Convention there this week.

Layman Robert Turner conducted the worship service at Tabernacle Church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Mr. Strickland.

Mrs. Louise Watson and Miss Nellie McFadyen visited some of the patients at Highsmith-Rainey Memorial Hospital Sunday p.m. They saw Mrs. Mary Peterson of Raeford and Mr. Younger Stephens of Rockfish. They seemed to be doing fairly well.

If Rockfish News was a little shorter last week, there was a reason. The telephone strikers had come here some time Monday night and cut the wires. So, there was no partylene talk here in Rockfish Tuesday, until late that afternoon, when the telephone folks came to investigate and repair.

Bible School began at Pittman Grove Church Monday evening.

Revival services begin at Pittman Grove Church Sunday night, June 16, with Rev. Baxter Walker of Fayetteville as the guest minister. You are cordially invited to attend.

The Rev. William Beasley, pastor of Pittman Grove Church, will be heard over WSHB Radio Station each morning this week at 11:45.

Revival services began at Parker Church Sunday night with good attendance and good singing. It will continue through Friday night.
