Baker-Stephens Couple

Married December 22nd

Miss Glynda Jan Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens, and Roger Dale Baker, son of George McKinley Baker and the late Mrs. Baker, were united in marriage at three o'clock, Sunday afternoon, December 22, at Gethsemane Baptist Church in Fayetteville. The Reverend Robert Doan, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony which the bridal couple composed.

Mrs. Paul Elkins Jr. provided the wedding music. John Ray Daniel, brother-in-law of the bride, lighted the candles. Mrs. John Ray Daniel, sister of the bride, assisted at the bride's registry.

Miss Stephens and Mr. Baker entered the church together.

The bride wore a gown of antique white crepe with a portrait neckline edged in applied antique white roses of Alencon lace. The bodice was molded into a deep band which encircled the waist and was adorned with Alencon lace designs. Long tapered sleeves were accented with rose petal appliques at the wrists and was repeated on the trim of the matching lace of the biased hand coverlet. The floor length gown swept into a chapel train. The double-tiered illusion veil was edged in single rows of antique white Venetian lace and was held by a Camelot cap adorned with roses, daisies and pearls, and completed with a double nylon bow at the base. The veil was made by the bride. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations interspersed with Christmas red rosebuds with red and white streamers.

Mrs. Stephens chose for her daughter's wedding a pastel blue polyester knit dress with matching accessories. She wore a double white carnation corsage. The two grandmothers and the great-grandmother of the bridal couple were remembered with white carnation corsages.

For traveling the bride wore a white polyester knit dress with a pink skirt. Roman tapestry designed flowers circled the waist. She wore matching accessories, and a pink and white carnation corsage.

Following the wedding trip, the bridal couple will reside at 406 West Central Avenue in Raeford.

The bride and groom are seniors at Hoke County High School.

Mrs. Roger Dale Baker

Post-Rehearsal Party

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Daniel entertained with a cake cutting at their home on Bethel Road for Miss Stephens and Mr. Baker. Guests were the bridal couple, immediate families. Upon her arrival Miss Stephens was given a white carnation corsage.

The Daniel home was decorated in the Christmas tradition. The dining room table was spread with a lace cloth and centered with three Christmas red candles, the center one encircled with red and white carnations.

Gracing one end of the table was the three-tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. Leon Thrower.

Miss Stephens and Mr. Baker cut the first slice. Afterwards, Mrs. James Stephens, mother of the bride, served cake and Mrs. John Daniel, sister of the bride, poured punch.

Dietzel-FitzSimons Pair United In Home Ceremony

Miss Ann McBryde FitzSimons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Roux FitzSimons, and Michael Wade Dietzel, son of Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Joseph Melvin Dietzel of Lumberton, were married Thursday, December 26, at the home of the bride. The Rev. John C. Ropp officiated for the 11:00 a.m. vows in the presence of the immediate family.

White poinsettias, white candles and Christmas foliage were arranged on the living room mantel to form an improvised altar.

The bridal couple entered together. She wore a French blue crepe dress and had a shoulder corsage of white roses.

The dining room table was covered with white linen and centered with an antique silver candelabrum with red candles and holly. Open face sandwiches, chicken puffs, tarts, assorted confections and coffee were served. Mrs. Tom McBryde, the bride's aunt, poured coffee. She was assisted in serving by the bride's sister, Mrs. C.H. Humphrey.

The newlyweds are at home at 4801 Walden Court, Raleigh.

The bride, a graduate of Hoke County High School, was graduated cum laude from Winthrop College with a B.A. degree in history. She is employed by the Wake County Department of Social Services.

Mr. Dietzel is a graduate of Prince George County, Va., High School and has a B.S. degree in chemical engineering from N.C. State University. He is employed by the N.C. Department of Natural and Economic Resources.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Senator and Mrs. Ryan McBryde of Raeford.
