Prisoner Killed Wanted For Trial Here

A Hope Mills man taken into custody in Fayetteville for failing to appear for trial here was shot and killed by a Cumberland County deputy Monday night.

William Horace Colville, 33, was arrested by Raeford city police on Nov. 25 as he hid behind a door in the upstairs portion of Southern National Bank. He was carrying a gun.

He was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and was released on $1000 bond to await trial in district court.

When he failed to appear for trial Jan. 3, an order for his arrest was issued. Colville was arrested Monday. He was placed in Cumberland County jail and was killed in a chase after he was reported to have fled from the courthouse. Colville was reportedly shot as he drove away in a car after having run down pursuing deputies.

Deputy Edward L. Schneider, who fired the shots at Colville as he drove away, has been relieved of duty until the incident is investigated.

City and county law enforcement officers charged Charles E. Pickard, 19, of Raeford, with driving under the influence, driving without a license, public drunkenness and larceny of a .25 calibre semi-automatic pistol.

According to Sheriff D.M. Barrington, Pickard was arrested by city police on the traffic offenses on Jan. 22, and Raeford merchant Paul Solomon paid the youth's bond.

Pickard spent the night at the Solomon home, according to the sheriff, and left early the next morning, leaving a note for the Solomons in which he stated he would kill himself.

The theft of the pistol belonging to Solomon was discovered when deputies answered a call later that day from the Rev. A.W. Wright of Rt. 2, Raeford, that someone was breaking into the home of his son, Willie Wright. Deputies Harvey Young and H.F. Bowen went to the Wright home and found Pickard there with the gun. Pickard identified the gun as belonging to Solomon, and Solomon, when notified, swore out a warrant against Pickard for larceny.

Pickard was arrested at the home of Mrs. Nellie McBryde after a scuffle with the sheriff. According to Barrington, the gun contained five rounds of ammunition in the clip and one in the chamber.

Pickard is in Hoke County jail in lieu of $5500 bond. Trial is set in district court for Feb. 7.

Several break-ins were investigated in the county last week.

Forty cartons of cigarettes valued at $107.60 were stolen from Parks' Grocery on 401 by-pass last Friday morning. Entry was gained by breaking the lock on the back door.

An AM-FM radio valued at $177 was reported stolen sometime during the day last Thursday from the home of Roger Chambers of Rt. 1, Aberdeen. According to the deputies' report, the back door was opened after cardboard covering a missing pane of glass was removed.

City police arrested three men Jan. 22, charging them with the Dec. 28 burglary of a Raeford home. Charged with felonious breaking, entering and larceny are Ricky Bratcher, 16, of 707 Saunders St.; Vernon L. Ferguson, 20, Raeford Hotel; and Bengie Stephens, 18, 520 E. 6th St.

A preliminary hearing is set in district court Feb. 14.

Sandra Hasty, 17, of Rt. 1, Raeford, was arrested Monday and charged with the petty larceny of four 29 cents notebooks from the A&P.

An attempted break-in at Howell Drugs was foiled early Sunday morning when the burglar alarm sounded. Two persons fled from the rear of the building as city policemen J.C. Barrington and George Brown arrived. One of the two rear doors had been broken open.

Two stolen cars were recovered last week by city police.

The 1974 auto belonging to Julian Wright was taken from the parking lot in front of his office on Harris Avenue on Jan. 23. It was recovered that same afternoon and a juvenile was questioned in connection with the theft.

A 1967 pickup truck belonging to Wyatt Upchurch was stolen on Jan. 23, and was recovered the following day. No arrests have been made.

SCHOLARSHIP -- Kenneth Hendrix, who farms with his family in Blue Springs, will attend the modern farming short course at NC State University Feb. 3-14 on a scholarship from Raeford's banks. Gene Carter, president of Bank of Raeford (center) and Freddie Williams, vice-president of Southern National Bank (right) give Hendrix the tuition.

Hoke County Vets To Receive $15,000

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 -- For some 200 of the war veterans living in Hoke County, Washington is offering greetings of a pleasant kind.

With the greetings is the news that they will receive approximately $15,000 in the months ahead as their share of a $335.6 million melon being cut by the Government.

The money represents dividends that have fallen due them under GI insurance policies.

Local veterans whose service was solely in the Vietnam War will not participate at this time because of the type of insurance policies they hold.

On the other hand, veterans of the Korean War will be getting payments for the first time. The majority of the recipients are those who saw service in World War II. Also participating are World War I vets.

According to the Veterans Administration, the $335.6 million dividend to be distributed this year breaks all records. It is $31.8 million more than ever before.

The bigger payout was made possible by the fact that the interest earned by the trust funds that govern the insurance policies has been higher than usual lately.

The great majority of those who will be receiving checks are World War II vets who hold National Service Life Insurance policies bearing the letter V.

World War I vets who hold U.S. Government Life Insurance policies starting with the letter K and those who were in the Korean conflict and have Veterans Special Life Insurance will also participate.

The 200 residents of Hoke County who will be benefiting represent only 21 percent of the 930 World War and Korean veterans in the local area. They are the ones who kept their policies in force.

What they will receive will vary in amount, depending upon their age and the size and type of their policies.

For World War I vets the average will be $169, for those who were in World War II, $83, and for Korean vets, $11.
