Birthdays

Cathi Denise Miller

Cathi Denise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Miller celebrated her tenth birthday last Thursday with a party given by her mother in the Trainable Class at J.W. McLaughlin School. Mrs. Miller served the class cake, ice cream and Pepsi.

Hoke Seniors

Try For Grant

Two Hoke High seniors have been chosen to compete for the Sallie Southall Cotten scholarship of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs.

They are Susan Croft and Pam Dockery.

The girls will be competing at the district meeting at Campbell College on March 1. One winner will be chosen to vie in the state finals for the $1,250 scholarship given each year to an outstanding girl graduate in the state.

The scholarship may be used at any state-supported institution.

Nominees are chosen on the basis of character, scholastic ability, intellectual potential, leadership, school and community activities and need for financial assistance.

Susan and Pam were chosen by a committee from the Raeford Woman's Club and the Raeford Junior Woman's Club.

FINISHING TOUCHES - Mrs. Marjorie Adams, left, specialist in creative crafts for the N.C. Extension Service, supervises as Mrs. David Brown polishes a silver pin she is making. The jewelry workshop was held last week in the extension kitchen.

Education Department

Met Tuesday

The Education Department of the Raeford Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. A.D. Gore, Tuesday night. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Charles Hostetler and Mrs. Neil Senter.

Mrs. Steeva Snead, a very talented, local, young woman, gave the program on antique dolls. She presented several of the dolls in her collection and their histories. Doll books from her collection were also on view for the members to examine and enjoy during the social hour.

Mrs. C.E. Willis presided over the business session, at which time activities were endorsed for the remainder of the year.
