

Jaycee Gun Course Ends

Sixty eight young people completed the Hoke County Jaycee Shooting Education program last Saturday. The program consisted of a six week course in which the young people were taught proper gun handling and firearm safety.

Each student completing the course was awarded a certificate and awards were presented to the top students. In the Over-All Awards 1st place was won by Lawrence Calloway, 2nd place went to Teddy Locklear and 3rd to Daniel Gaddis. The Shooting award, for highest score in the shooting match was also won by Lawrence Calloway.

The program was also used to help select 16 young people who will enter the Jaycees tryouts for the team to enter the State B.B. Gun Championship. The 16 young people selected on Saturday were: Terry Baxley, Randy Blackburn, Donald Calloway, Lawrence Calloway, Gilbert Cribbs, Jack Espregren, Gregory Fisher, Andy Frahm, Cindy Frahm, Daniel Gaddis, Tommy Graham, Teddy Locklear, Scott Sayer, Bill Sellars, Brenda Southern, and Alton White.

The sixteen will go into four intensive instruction and practice sessions and then the seven team members for state competition will be chosen. The Hoke team will enter the N.C. B.B. Gun Championship on May 3, 1975 at Pleasant Garden, N.C. If the team wins the state championship it will then enter international competition in the summer.

Area Incidents

Arrest Follows Driving

A man reportedly driving a stolen car was jailed on multiple charges Sunday after he allegedly rammed a trailer at an outlying mobile home park and later scuffled with police in Raeford.

Guy Hardman, a Carolina Country resident, complained to sheriff's deputies at about 11 P.M. Sunday night a man had struck Hardman's mobile home with his car and then drove off. Later, a car matching the description given was spotted striking the rear of a vehicle on Main Street in Raeford and Officer Charles Campbell gave chase.

The driver was apprehended and arrested after a brief scuffle with Campbell, according to the report.

Lonnie E. Hinson, no address given, was charged with hit and run, driving under the influence, assaulting a police officer, and damage to personal property. Other charges are pending in the investigation.

In other incidents, James R. McNeill, Rt. 4, Raeford, reported to deputies his home was entered sometime between 8:30 A.M. and 3:30 P.M. on Feb. 19 and a .32 caliber Smith and Wesson pistol wrapped in an old shirt and hidden in a drawer was stolen. Entry was made by breaking a window, according to the report. Nothing else was apparently disturbed. The loss is listed as $100.

James Barefoot, P.O. Box 202, Raeford, reported his home on Rockfish Road was broken into, causing about $50 damage to a door on Feb. 20. Apparently nothing was taken, according to deputies.

Florence Smith, Rt. 1, Raeford, reported the theft of six bottles of Mad Dog 20-20 wine from a storeroom at Pete's Esso Station. The door to the storage area was damaged, according to the report.

Terry Johnson, 335 So. Main Street, reported his car was entered Feb. 8 between 7-8 A.M. and a tape player, the battery, the jack, and floor mats with a total value of $139 removed.

A five year old child sustained a gunshot wound and was hospitalized Feb. 19 in an accidental shooting in his home.

Brian Slate, Jr., Rt. 1, Red Springs, was shot when a gun his four year old brother was playing with discharged. Information on the extent of the child's injury was not available.

City police reported Robert Webb, manager of the Raeford Hotel, complained two men entered his room Thursday night, apparently thinking the room was unoccupied. The men fled when Webb hollered at them, according to Chief Leonard Wiggins and an investigation is pending.

Partnership protection

Business partnerships exist only as long as both partners survive. This is why Nationwide introduced partnership protection, a joint life insurance plan designed to cover a two-partner business. If a partner dies, Nationwide can provide cash to the surviving partner to purchase the deceased partner's share. Call a Nationwide agent for all the details.
