by Terri Tucker

The S.A.E. held a meeting last Tuesday night, it was pertaining to their trip on Saturday March 1, 1975. The S.A.E. members went to Duke for a meeting. Daniel Norton introduced Steve Morgan by imitating John Wayne and Ed Sullivan. Steve won over the other candidates running for Vice President. Congratulations to Steve.

The Hoke County High School Chorus and Chorale participated in the Eastern Region No. 3 Chorale Festival and Workshop held in Wilmington at UNC-W, Friday February 28. The Chorale received the rating of Superior. The Chorus sang for criticism only and received complimentary remarks from the adjudicator. Accompanist for the Chorale is Danny Dial, a senior and Tara Barnes, a junior, for the Chorus. The event was sponsored by the Choral Section of the North Carolina Music Educators Conference. A total of 700 vocal music students from Cerro Gordo, Clinton, Fayetteville, Hamlet, Laurinburg, Raeford, Rockingham, Tabor City, Wilmington, and Whiteville attended the Festival.

Erving C. Covert, chorale director at Walter Williams Senior High School in Burlington served as adjudicator and clinician. Bob T. Alexander, director of choral music at John T. Hoggard in Wilmington, was chairman of the Festival.

Squad Completes Training

Mrs. Jackie Wimberly, an RN with Burlington Industries here, was notified by Al Minor, Region N Council Emergency Medical Service Coordinator, that all Hoke Squadmen completing the classes, passed the practical and written examination.

Mrs. Wimberly was hired by Robeson Technical Institute, accredited by the state of North Carolina, to train potential EMT's as the class coordinator. Her duties consisted of maintaining roll call, furnishing medical doctors for two of the three hours instruction each night and conducting the one hour practical exercise after each.

She also furnished three local exams before the final.

The classes began October 7th on Monday and Wednesday nights except for the month of December and ended February 12th. This includes 75 hours in class room and 10 hours in the emergency room at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Instructors for classes were the current resident surgeon at McCain Hospital. These doctors, from Duke University Hospital are here for four months, Oateen Hospital near Asheville for four months then conclude at VA Hospital in Durham, N.C.

Dr. Kent Jones taught the first half of the course and Dr. Roger Millard finished the last half.

The course began with a total of 30: 23 squadmen, 2 national guardsmen, 2 registered nurses, 2 from Red Springs and one other local woman.

Of those attending five dropped out of the course and one failed. A total of 24 will be certified as Emergency Medical Technicians.

Earl Conoly, squad commander, said "We started the course here in our building for anyone needing the certification and although participation was disappointing the attendance did hold up well." "Frankly I was really surprised when Al Minor called and told me Hoke County Rescue Squad is the first squad in the state that all squadmen who completed the course also successfully passed the state administered examination."

A brief ceremony was held last Monday night to present certificates of completion from Robeson Technical Institute. The wives of members were in attendance as Mrs. Wimberly presented the squadmen their certificates.

Also in attendance were Ralph Barnhart, John Balfour, and James A. Hunt, County Commissioners; Graham Clark and Robert Weaver, City Board; Leonard Wiggins, Chief of Police; Jessie
