Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clark announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Lynn, to Charles Michael Orum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Orum of Rockfish. The wedding is planned for June 14, at the Raeford Presbyterian Church.

Church Honors Mrs. Howard

The session and congregation of Antioch Presbyterian Church, will honor Mrs. Archie Howard with a reception to be held in the church fellowship hall on Sunday, March 23, from three to five o'clock.

Mrs. Howard is retiring, effective April 1, as church organist after having served for many years in that capacity. Her friends and friends of the congregation are invited to share in this occasion.

Sandhills Christian Women's Club

Mrs. Melba Carr of Mt. Gilead, will bring a special feature at the March 19 luncheon meeting of the Sandhills Christian Women's Club. This meeting will be held at The Country Club of North Carolina at 11:30 a.m., and all women of this area are invited to attend. Mrs. Carr will demonstrate the many clever things which can be made as she talks on the subject "artist with sea shells".

The guest speakers will be Mr. and Mrs. Curt Nunnery of WFIA Radio Station in Fayetteville.

Special music will be given by Mrs. Dewey Mimms of Southern Pines, soloist and a former chairman of this club. Mrs. Mimms has been very active in speaking and singing at Christian Women's Club programs throughout the state.

A free babysitter will be at United Methodist Church, Midland Road, Southern Pines. Please tell the caller if you want this service and bring the child's lunch. For reservations call 875-3750.

Miss Sarah Morris of Virginia Beach, Va., spent last week here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morris.

May Bride-Elect

Miss Jane Ann Hustrulid of Charlotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Hustrulid of High Point, is engaged to be married to Tommy Lee Williams of Raeford, son of Mrs. O.G. Williams, also of Raeford, and the late Mr. Williams. The wedding will take place on May 3, at the First Presbyterian Church in High Point.

Miss Hustrulid attended High Point Central High School and Mitchell College and is employed by Livingston and Haven, Inc., Charlotte.

Mr. Williams, a graduate of Hoke County High School, is employed by South Carolina Ice Corp.

Bridal Tea For Miss Stocks

Miss Elizabeth Stocks, bride-elect of Kenny Davis, was honored with a tea Saturday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Radford Collins. Mrs. Fred Holland was co-hostess.

The hostesses presented Miss Stocks with a white carnation corsage and a silver serving tray.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Collins. Mrs. William Davis, mother of the prospective bridegroom, introduced guests to the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Elbert Stocks.

Mrs. Holland invited guests into the dining room where they were served punch, cake, nuts and mints by Mrs. Donald Collins of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Chalmers Davis, aunts of Mr. Davis. Misses Deborah Davis, Donna Scarborough and Donna Holland assisted.

The table was covered with a white imported, handmade lace cloth and centered with yellow, green and white spring flowers and white candles arranged in a silver candelabrum.

Among the approximately 75 guests were the following from out of town: Mrs. Donald Collins and Mrs. David McMillan of Fayetteville, Mrs. Aulry Collins of Sanford, Mrs. Roy Smith of Aberdeen, Miss Sally Mac Johnson of Greenville and the Misses Debbie, Jennie and Susie Stocks of Tarboro.

Class Studied For Nurses

A survey is being conducted by Moore Memorial Hospital and Sandhills Community College to determine the need for a Registered Nurse Refresher Course.

This program would be designed to review nursing procedures and techniques necessary today in health care. The objective is to help inactive registered nurses to upgrade and qualify for re-entry in the job market.

Registered nurses interested in the program are asked to call Mrs. Nancy Hall, Assistant Director of Nursing at Moore Memorial Hospital, 295-6861; or Mr. Jesse R. Mansfield, Chairman of Continuing Education at Sandhills Community College, 692-6185.

Woman's Clubs Hold District Arts Festival

Ninth District of North Carolina Federation of Club Women attended the one day arts festival which was held on Campbell College campus in Buies Creek on Saturday, March 1.

At Taylor Hall they were greeted by members of the Dunn Woman's Club, the Dunn Junior Woman's Club and the Dunn Juniors Club.

During the first hours, members of the more than 20 District Nine clubs registered their arts and crafts, met in the hospitality room to renew friendships over coffee and goodies furnished by the Dunn Junior Club, and attended two special crafts demonstrations.

At the morning session they were also able to sit in on the music, public speaking and drama contests. Judging of the nearly 100 crafts entries and almost that many visual arts entries were done at this time.

The afternoon session in Turner Auditorium was opened by Mrs. E. Lee Jones of Hamlet, district president, and Mrs. Robert Townsend of Raeford, district chaplain, gave the invocation. Mrs. Mack Jernigan of Dunn played an introit as the platform guests entered the auditorium.

Dr. L. Bryant Ledgerwood, academic dean of the college, Mrs. Tom Weaver, president of the Dunn Woman's Club, Mrs. Hester Vernon, president of the Dunn Junior Woman's Club, and Miss Rhonda Parsons, president of the Dunn Juniors, welcomed the club women and their guests. A response was given by Mrs. Howard Gschwind, president of the Vass Woman's Club.

Following the fashion show by the students and clubwomen who were competing in the sewing contest, awards for the six divisions of the arts were given out by the chairman of the arts departments.

Mrs. Mike Womble of Sanford, sewing chairman, narrated the fashion show while Mrs. H.W. Whittenton of Dunn furnished the music. The student sewing award was presented by Mrs. Womble to Miss Kathy King of Buies Creek who was sponsored by the Coats Woman's Club.

Miss King, the current "Miss Denim", was wearing a long dress and coat made of faded blue denim donated to her by Burlington Mills.

Mrs. Dick Lovett of the Raeford Junior Woman's Club won the club woman's contest.

Miss Karen Key, sponsored by the Sanford Junior Woman's Club received the Sally Southall Cotten Scholarship award from Mrs. Thurman Brown of Fayetteville, scholarship and education chairman for the district.

In the absence of Mrs. Gerald Hayes, junior director of District Nine, Mrs. Vernon presented Mrs. Julian Mann of the Fayetteville Junior Woman's Club with the junior club woman of the year award.

The Sanford Junior Woman's Club took home the Sanford Junior Woman's Club crafts award, a silver bowl, for having the most entries in the festival.
