Area Incidents

Burglars Busy

Sheriff's deputies are investigating several reported break-ins in the past week.

H.P. Walters, Rt. 3, complained his home was entered sometime during the day on March 11 and a .12 gauge, single-barrel shotgun valued at $49 stolen. Coins and old currency worth $100 are also listed as stolen. Entry was apparently made by kicking in a door, the report stated.

Roger Taylor, Rt. 4, Box 234, reported his home was burglarized sometime between March 10-13 and a gun, stereo receiver, .12 gauge single-shot shotgun, and 50 record albums taken. The loss is listed at $685. Entry was made by breaking the glass in a rear door, according to the report.

Karl Paige of Palmer Trailer Park, complained his home was entered sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning and a vacuum cleaner worth $483.31 was removed. Entry was apparently made through a partially opened window on the door of the trailer, according to the report.

B.R. Barbour, Rt. 2, reported to deputies shots were fired at his truck and trailer, causing about $100 in damage about 10:45 p.m. on March 12. Barbour reported seeing a vehicle leaving the scene.

Viola M. Bridges, Rt. 3, complained the license plate was stolen from her car March 11.

City police spotted a break-in early Tuesday morning at Clark's Gulf on 401-B. The glass in a door had been broken, and the thief reached in and unlocked the door, Chief Leonard Wiggins said. About $8 in cash was taken from the register.

Bicyclist Hurt

Police report a 14-year-old Raeford youth was injured early Monday evening in a bicycle-car collision on St. Pauls Drive.

Police Chief Leonard Wiggins said Reco Machell Bratcher was injured about 6:45 p.m. when his bike apparently veered into the side of a car attempting to pass.

According to the driver, Mark Henry Berube, 20, Gen. Del. Parkton, and an unidentified passenger with Berube, the bicycle struck the side of the auto after it swerved to the left, Wiggins said.

Bratcher was transported to Cape Fear Valley Hospital with a broken leg and undetermined head injuries, the Chief said. Bratcher was not admitted. No charges have been filed at the present time, Wiggins said.

DO YOU AGREE?

A substantial number of consumers would accept fewer brand choices and shorter store hours and would do their own packing at checkout counters in exchange for lower food prices, according to a consumer survey done for a food trade association. Other tradeoffs consumers indicated they would be willing to accept for lower food prices were a ban on no-return bottles, more limited weekday advertising and fewer package sizes.
