Mayor Won't Object To Housing Panel

Hopes for the reactivation of the Raeford Housing Authority got a boost Tuesday when Raeford Mayor John K. McNeill said he would have no objection if the city council wanted to reappoint members to the inactive board.

A group of citizens campaigning for low-income housing has asked that the housing authority be reactivated.

McNeill said, "I asked the city attorney to pick up all that information on housing and I'll ask the board if they want to reappoint the housing authority."
