

College News

A total of 13 Hoke County students were named to the honor lists for the winter quarter at East Carolina University.

Three students earned spots on the elite all-A list. They are Reba Alice Best of 715 Cameron Street; Charles Eugene Davis of 306 N. Jackson Street and William E. Monroe of 213 Harris Avenue.

Dean's list honors, earned with a B-plus average and no grades below a C, went to Julia Anne Gibson of 304 W. Elwood Avenue and Sherre Evelon Rowe of Raeford.

Making the honor roll, with a B average and no grade below a C, were Mary Kathleen Davis of 306 N. Jackson Street; Deborah R. Easterling of Rt. 1, Linda Gail Huff of Raeford; Elizabeth Sue Ivey of 418 N. Main Street; Cathy Ann Newton of Rt. 2; Barbara Ann Plummer of Rt. 2; John P. Pope Jr. of Rt. 2 and Eugene Harold Powell of 302 N. Jackson Street.

Rebecca Peoples Stokes of Washington, N.C., has been named to the honor roll for the winter quarter at East Carolina University for maintaining a 3.4 grade average.

Mrs. Stokes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Peoples of Raeford. She is presently student teaching the seventh grade Exceptionally Talented Class at P.S. Jones Junior High School in Washington, N.C.

Mrs. Stokes will graduate in May.

Connie Cole was one of eleven junior women at Wake Forest University recently tapped into Mortarboard, a national women's honor society. Members must have a 3.0 grade average, a national requirement, and be campus leaders.

Miss Cole is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cole of Fayetteville and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.B. Cole of Raeford.

Club Caters To Working Wife

A homemakers' club geared to the working woman's hour lunch break meets each month at the extension kitchen.

The Twelve-ten club meets the third Tuesday.

"Ten minutes to get there, a 30 minute education program, 10 minutes of fellowship and 10 minutes to get back to work," is the way home agent Mrs. Ellen Willis explains it.

Members bring a sandwich and tea or coffee is provided at the kitchen.

Some of the programs have included tips on interior decoration, a talk on the last school bond issue from Raz Autry, tips by Franklin Teal on financial affairs and a program on learning disabilities by Rhenda Cameron.

The group, which has been meeting about three years, includes 15 on the role. Attendance ranges from about six to 12 each meeting.

While the club caters to the hours of working women, Mrs. Willis emphasizes it is open to everyone.
