Beatty-Purdie Pair Speak Vows Saturday

Miss Betty Mae Purdie and Artis Beatty spoke their wedding vows Saturday at 2:00 p.m. at Laurel Hill Baptist Church. The Rev. John D. Fuller officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Purdie of Lumber Bridge and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Beatty of Raeford.

Four seven-branched candelabra, a pair of floor baskets filled with white flowers and an open Bible on the altar formed a setting for the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Russell McAllister, organist, and Miss Gloria McLaughlin, vocalist, who sang "Wedding Prayer".

The maid of honor, Miss Sandra Galberth, wore a floor-length lavender dress made with laced bodice and long, full sleeves accented with ruffles at the wrists. Her shoulder-length veil was attached to a lavender bow, and she carried a large, single, white mum tied with lavender and white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Misses Cordelia Purdie, Alice F. Purdie, Valerie Purdie, sisters of the bride; Linda Beatty and Theresa Little. Their lavender dresses, imprinted with white flowers and their veils and flowers were like those of the honor attendant. The attendants' dresses were made by the bride's sister Cordelia.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother William Purdie. She wore a formal gown of white delustered satin and silk organza, appliqued with motifs and bands of lace, designed with empire bodice of satin with illusion yoke and wedding ring collar, lace bands at the collar, yoke and waistline, and organza camelot sleeves with wide satin cuffs and lace bands. The A-line satin skirt extended into a chapel train of organza outlined with lace. A lace-covered high camelot cap held her four-tiered veil of silk illusion and she carried a colonial bouquet of mixed white flowers.

Children in the wedding were Sharon Purdie and Emanuel Baldwin.

Barnabas Billinger served as best man. Ushers were Walter Purdie, George Dudley, Jerry Beatty, Cicero Beatty and Donald Hugh.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length light blue polyester knit dress with lace jacket and matching blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a long, peach and white

It Makes Sense
To Give Blood

Plain and simple, the Red Cross needs blood. Yet, while the critical needs mount, it seems people are simply too busy to slow down long enough to give.

Giving blood makes sense. Not only do you help to save another's life, but you can provide you and your family with a 12-month privilege to receive free blood if and as needed. Additionally, after giving up to two gallons over a period of time, the Red Cross will extend to you and your family a Lifetime Card entitling each to full blood transfusion rights at absolutely no cost.

Blood was meant to circulate. Won't you help? Call our local Red Cross Unit today and open a special kind of bank account - one whose dividends can't be lost!
